

Another 1st Place For The Marching Engineers

by JENNIFER ELLIOTT
Estill Band Parent

The Marching Engineers traveled to Hazard this weekend, bringing home another 1st place trophy, along with best color guard, best percussion and the best pit crew.

The band went up against some very good bands and still fared pretty well in the overall judging coming in 4th out of 14 bands.

The band, staff, and parents have worked so hard and deserve this hardware. You have never seen a group be as determined as this bunch has been this year, and we just know if everyone keeps up the hard work we will be watching them perform under the lights as a one of the top four bands of 2013.

Next week the band will travel to Barren County for competition.

"Although this wasn't our best effort," says director Jason Bowles, "There were still several positives that came from this performance.

"Focus and concentration seem to be our biggest obstacle at this time. This will be the MAIN theme in rehearsal this week.

"Next week, we go up against the state's best so we are shooting for focused and flawless."

by MIKE WISEMAN
The Estill County Tribune

The Lady Patriots' mid and late season schedule really starts to get busy as they begin a stretch of 19 games in 37 days. Last week was no exception as the ladies played 6 games between press times.

A Monday night road game to the backwoods of Menifee County kicked off a tough week of action for the Lady Pats. The 6th grade team could get no offense going and fell by a score of 20-4. Heather Walling and LeAnn Lewis scored a basket each for all of Estill's offense. The 7th graders found themselves with a 3 point deficit heading into the last stanza, but a 15-0 shutout in the fourth pulled the game out, 31-19.

Scoring- T. Duechle 10, M. Bellamy 9, S. Stewart 8, A. Farmer 2, S. Danyeur 2.

As the 8th grade began action the old saying, "I went to a basketball game and a hockey game broke out," came to mind as the referees?? swallowed their whistles. The Ladies fought back but fell 40-29.

Scoring- S. Stewart 10, M. Bellamy 6, S. Wiseman 4, K. Flynn 4, T. Duechle 2, S. Brewer 2, S. Danyeur 1.

team had a much easier time as they held F'town scoreless in the second half and cruised to a 33-6 win.

The weekend found ECMS hosting both Paris and Jackson County for a full day of basketball. Estill 7th graders scored early and often against Paris and cruised easily, 45-10.

The second half of the day saw all 3 teams in action against the Lady Generals from Jackson County. For only the 3rd time all year, all three teams were defeated. The 7th graders fell for only the 3rd time all year, 2 times to Jackson County.

Lee County came to town Monday night for some action against the 7th and 8th grade teams. Estill felt a little better after taking 2 wins and looking forward to a showdown with conference power Rockcastle Co. on Tuesday night.

The 7th grade simply overpowered Lee to the tune of 44-6.

Scoring- M. Bellamy 14, S. Danyeur 8, T. Duechle 8, K. Flynn 6, S. Stewart 4, A. Farmer 4.
