

Emergency volunteers are honored with picnic

Former Ravenna mayor Beverly Thompson, seated, organized the picnic for all volunteers. Standing is present Mayor Estine Tipton.

Randy Lovin was given first choice on his gift because he arrived early to cook for the other volunteers.

There were also gifts for the children of the volunteers. These gifts were distributed with age-appropriate items.

Ravenna Fire Chief David Harvey received a set of corn hole games and a plate hand painted by Jessica Mullins.

Dana Murphy hugged fall rag dolls that she picked over tvs, grills, etc. The UK corn hole games were made by Donna Whorley of Georgetown.

TO KEEP US SAFE.

Natural hazards can be scary – especially for kids. We count on the adults in our lives to help keep us safe.

That's why there's a website that can show you and your family how to prepare for all kinds of hazards – PrepareKY.com.

You can learn what to do if a dangerous material spill happens, and how to take shelter during bad thunderstorms.

Remember, we're counting on you to keep us safe.
