

Family members of the late Carl Cole were present for his Memorial Fishing Tournament sponsored by the Sons of the American Legion Saturday, which raised over $400. Cole was a bass fisherman. Pictured are: Kim Hale, Shaun Hale, Mia Hale, Ashton Hale, Ava Hale, Harper Hale, Zoe Deaton, Missy Deaton, Chris Cole, Tara Tate, Richard Tate, Brody Tate, Parker Tate, Houston Tate, Rhema Tate, and Tammy Cole. A grandchild, Cole Deaton, was unable to attend.

Congrats to Drew Oakley and Stevie McMaine on tying the knot! Jay Bicknell married these two on Saturday, September 21, 2013, after they asked him to marry them while dressed in his camo and duck calls. He is the son of Shane Oakley and she is the daughter of Marty McMaine and the late Steve McMaine.

Dixon Family "Thank You"

Franklin Dixon

We, the family of Franklin Dixon, would like to take this time to thank everyone for their help in our time of need. A special thanks to all who have come by to show their support to our family; Dr. Kassiss, Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital, Warren F. Toler Funeral Home; the ones who have sent flowers, donations, food; all the churches, the singers, Brother Jerry Rose, and Brother Bobby Hale. We the family sincerely appreciate all the kind words, support, prayers, and any contributions that anyone has made. Love & Prayers To All . . .

Second runner up team were Randall Christopher and Kenny Cole, a brother of Carl Cole. This was the first bass fishing tournament that Kenny had competed in.

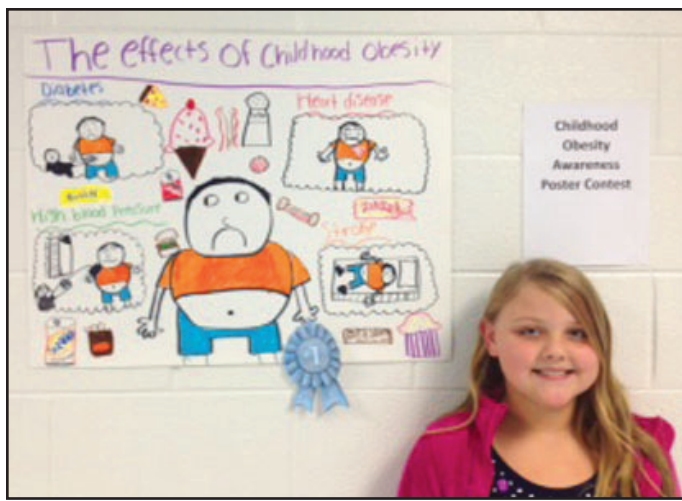

Billy Muncy and his dad, Charlie Bill, took first place in the fishing tournament. Billy had the largest fish of the tournament, which weighed in at 4.46 pounds. Fish were released back into the Ky. River.

Rain forced car show exhibitors to take shelter at the Railroad Festival. Awards from that festival will be presented during the last car show of the season.
