The family of Mattie "Granny" Mastin would like to thank everyone for the thoughts, prayers, and everything, during her illness and death.

Granny impacted many people during her life on earth and will be missed by countless folks. She is having a great reunion with Jesus and all those who have gone before her, and it is of great comfort to know, one day, we will all be together again because of our belief and acceptance of Jesus Christ. The journey we have been on within the last year has shown us that Jesus very much lives within the hearts of our family and friends!
