

Top sellers of the Cherry Dale fundraiser at Estill Springs were treated to a limo ride and lunch at Pizza Hut in Thursday afternoon. Pictured are: Peyton Henderson, McKenzie Moatts, Jadelyn Neal, Hayden Fletcher, Trevor Venters, Landon Trent, Katareena Smith, Aleya Bingham, James Canter, Alyssa Cox, Elizabeth Raider, Keith Kenney, Rose-Erin Phillips, Brayden Witt, Luke Cornett, and Serinadee Maggard.

Students from West Irvine who sold the most amount of items for Cherrydale were treated to a limo ride and lunch at Pizza Hut on Friday. Pictured in no particular order are Hunter Woolery, Casey Daugherty, Caleb Witt, Hunter Cole, Maggie Elkins, and Piper Samples. Absent from photo : Waylon Puckett.

Photos by Cathy Dawes

A youngster gets a "snake hug" during Jakes Day on Saturday at the fairgrounds.

First grade students in the blue wing at Estill Springs Elementary studied a unit on Johnny Appleseed. Classroom activities in the core content were tied to the unit. On Thursday, students and teachers in the blue wing dressed as Johnny Appleseed. Many of them came to school barefooted. Some even carried a bag of apples. Most hats were cooking pans from their mother's kitchen, which didn't always fit the best in the world. Some students also carried a Bible because ("Johnny did that"). They also carried a hobo sack on a stick with extra clothes. Pictured above are the students who were judged as winners in the dress-up event.

First grade teachers in the blue wing also dressed as Johnny Appleseed. Pictured above, left to right, are Amanda Adams, Brittany Thomas, Elizabeth Hughes, Virginia Woolery, and Andrea Maybrier.

Jay Bicknell demonstrated how to call turkeys during Jakes Day on Saturday at the fairgrounds.

Estill Medical Clinic supports Alzheimer's Disease Awareness

275 Court Street, Irvine • (606) 723-2167

Paula Robinson, M.D.
Donna Arvin Isfort, ARNP