

Times Remembered Betty A. Young

BYoung505@Windstream.Net

Every year we try to get away for a weekend on our anniversary. This was our 27th wedding anniversary. Hard to believe, time passes so fast.

We decided to go to Brown County, (Nashville) Indiana. I had heard so much about all the great shops and things to do there. We were tired of Pigeon Forge and Gatlinburg; so we decided to head north to Hoosier Country. It's not a bad drive; it takes about three hours.

A Weekend In Brown County, Indiana

Brown County's colorful leaves and rolling hills draw thousands of visitors each fall, making autumn an ideal place to visit for leave watching and for festivals. People just love being outside. Brown County offers many outdoor festivals for people of all interests from motorcycles and mountain bikes to good music and good food.

I made reservations at the Artist Colony Inn the week before. The inn was very quaint; but nice. The furnishings were Shaker style with a pencil post bed and pegs to hang your clothes on, located around the wall; which was different. The room was small but offered adequate space for one couple. Each room was dedicated to a favorite artist that had spent time there painting.

There are many places to stay such as the Abe Martin Lodge, The Brown County Inn, The Nashville House, Orchard Hill Motel, The Village Motel and the Cornerstone Motel to name a few. There are also log cabins to rent at Brown County State Park.

We spent most of Saturday visiting as many shops as possible and I don't think we covered them all. My favorite part of the town was Antique Alley where original crafts were created by Brown county craftsmen. Items included beautiful pottery, leather goods, such as hats, handbags, moccasins and accessories and handmade jewelry.

Of course we also enjoyed the Carmel Corn Cottage that featured caramel corn, kettle corn and caramel delights. Bob just had to get caramel corn!

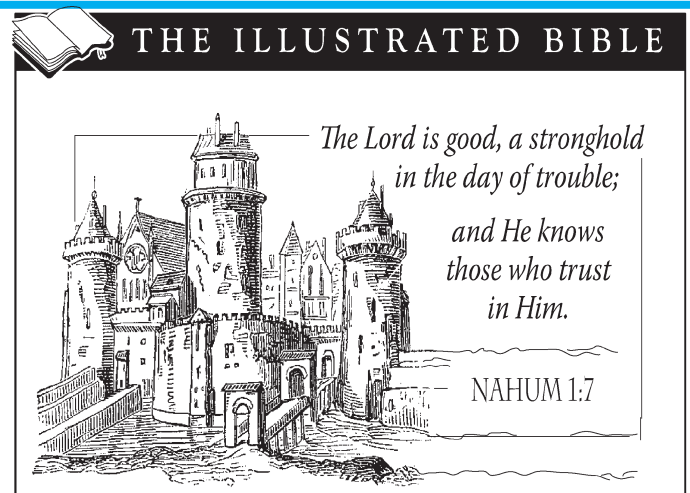

We took a train ride around town and they also offered carriage and trail rides.

We ate lunch at a special place that was Bob's favorite . . . The Sandwick Shoppe, owned by Bobby Knight's long-time friend. It was in a basement decorated with Indiana memorabilia. Bob was brave enough to wear his UK blue in the Hoosier den! He got some stares; but he didn't mind. He even asked the waitress why there wasn't any Kentucky Blue on the wall; she just laughed and took our order; no comment.

I bought things for the kids; Colton got clothes from the Nike outlet nearby in Edinburgh and toys from The Toy Chest. I found Tara a UK top on sale at Foxfire & Foxfire. All UK shirts were on sale.

We had a great time and made many special memories. If you ever get a chance to go to Brown County; I would recommend it highly.

Second Marriages

by BOB CASEY, Preacher, Church of Christ

In the Hebrew letter chapter 13:4, the writer states this: "Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled, but whose mongers and adulterers God will judge."

So in the content of this verse there can be no misunderstanding as far as God putting His approval upon the marriage of a man and a woman. In the garden when God brought Eve unto Adam they were counted as a marriage. Not an Adam and Steve, or neither an Eve and Estoria, but a man and a woman only. All of this other stuff is to dishonor God and their own bodies. Romans 1:24 couldn't be plainer. But the main thing I want to point out in this article is a great majority of men and women are giving up on their first marriages in great numbers. So when this happens it simply means that someone is sinning against God. One of the saddest of all cases are, some may be married two or three times and they decide that they want to obey the gospel, be recognized as a faithful church member even though the marriage that they are presently in may be an adulterous affair. Let me say clearly, one will never receive the approval of God, unless they quit this adulterous union and sadly remain single for the duration of their lives. According to the word of God, marriage can only be terminated through death (Romans 7:1-3) or if one of the partners in a marriage commits fornication or adultery. Matthew 19:3-9 is so clear on this that one would have to be completely without any reasoning to misunderstand it. I will note at this time that fornication is when a married person has an illicit affair with an unmarried person. Adultery is committed when a partner in a marriage becomes involved with another married person. There is another thing that is troubling to many churches, and this is when a partner in a marriage dies, so that the first marriage is over at the death. Many times (and I am writing to confessed Christians), a Christian will get involved with someone else who may not be a member of the church of the Lord, and desire to marry them any way. In this I will make no apologies for the word of God, because in His word I Corinthians 7:39 carefully consider, "The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth, but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will: "Only in the Lord." This means that if a Christian that has lost their mate in death and desires to contract another marriage, God says: Only unto another Christian. Sadly, many have not read for themselves and are presently in a situation that God not approved of: if not, why not. Visit with us at the church of Christ located at 262 Broadway. We will gladly study the matter with you.

Sincerely, Bob Casey, Waco 1-859-369-4165

It was a crowded Sunday morning worship service when the pastor reminded his congregation of the church prayer meeting. Unfortunately, only two members came: the pastor and the three-hundred pound church janitor.

The next Sunday the pastor informed his flock that there was a "large and enthusiastic crowd" at prayer meeting. The janitor became upset and accused the pastor of lying. "But," protested the pastor, "I did not lie. You're large and I'm enthusiastic."

There are times when we twist the truth to make ourselves or others look good or bad. Sometimes we offer a lie as an asset but it always proves to be a liability. There are times when we stretch the truth but it will always snap back and hurt us.

One translation of the Bible puts it this way: "Stop lying to each other; tell the truth" when we lie to each other we are only hurting ourselves."
