

Brandenburg and Arvin To marry on October 19

Cynthia Brandenburg and Lance Arvin

Tim and Karen Brandenburg of Irvine would like to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Cynthia Deanne Brandenburg to Lance Walker Arvin, the son of David and Tina Arvin of Irvine.

The bride-to-be is a granddaughter of Doug and Emma Dennis, Eugetta Brandenburg and the late Charles Brandenburg. She is employed by White, Greer & Maggard.

The groom-to-be is a grandson of Harry and Mary Fox, Fannie Jo Arvin, and the late Carl Arvin. He is employed by Sherwin Williams.

The wedding will take place Saturday, October 19, 2013 at 4:30 p.m. at the River Drive Christian Church in Irvine. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Saturday's Old Time Days

Herb Rose demonstrated flint napping during the Estill County Historical & Genealogical's Old Time Day on Saturday.

Marvin Cooper also demonstrated flint-napping during the Old Time Days. Cooper often makes arrowheads from glass.

Olivers Welcome Daughter

Journey Brynn Oliver

Jeff and Ashley Oliver are proud to announce the birth of their third daughter, Journey Brynn, born on Thursday, November 12, 2013. She weighed 6 Lbs., 4 Oz. and was 20 inches long. She is welcomed home by big sisters McKenzie Brantley and Natalie Oliver. Grandparents are Gwen & Kenneth McKinney and Orpha & Sidney Oliver.

Elihue Shepherd formed a soap dish on the potter's wheel Saturday. Shepherd is the owner of Clay City Pottery. After the articles air-dried, Elihue fired them in the kiln later.

Elzie Watson stirred a big black-iron kettle full of soup beans on Saturday. Visitors to the museum could fill up on an old fashioned meal of beans, corn bread, and fried 'taters.

Old Time Day Photos by Delores L. Rowland

Left Photo: Billy Cooper from Spout Springs brought Woody and Granny to Old Time Days. Woody saws logs all day. Cooper hand-writes the event and date on the wood slice for souvenirs. Granny churns all day long. Cooper does not pass out samples of butter and buttermilk. It would be good with the soup beans and corn bread.
