The Estill County High School ROTC Raiders are tops in the state of Kentucky after dominating in a 3-state triad from Kentucky, Ohio and Tennessee. The Estill County team will be traveling to Georgia this weekend to compete in a national competition where they are expected to dominate in several events with male, female and coed teams.

Saturday morning ended the season for the 5th and 6th grade tackle teams as they faced off against Montgomery County. The Engineers came out on top with a final score of 21-6 ending their season with 6 wins and 2 losses. #21 Justin Stamper attempted a touchdown for the Little Neers as a group of Montgomery County players attempted to stop the play.
