

Drawn In By Sin

Linville Dunaway, Corinth Christian Church

How do you look at sin? Should a person take it seriously or figure that it is no big deal? Someone told me once, "What you think is wrong may not be wrong to me." I know some people think that if they like something, then it is alright. You and I do not decide what is sin and what is not, God does.

In Judges 17:6, "In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes." This was one of the times in Israel when each man set his own standard for living. What God had said was forgotten as each one followed his own desires. This course of action brought God's anger upon the nation. It was wrong then and will bring the same results today, to America or any other nation.

Sin caters to the flesh and/or to the pride of a person. In such a case a person feeds the desires of the flesh and is a slave to their own body. We are to rule the body and to serve God, not to waste our lives in a vain existence. Let us consider Lot, a man who followed what his eyes found appealing and compromised his values.

He was rich and was nephew to Abraham. They decided to part ways after their servants fought over water. Abraham told him to choose which way to go and he, Abraham would go the other way. We read in Genesis 13:10, "And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar." To Lot it looked good so it must be good. Many of us, by experience, have learned that everything that looks good is, often, not good as it looks.

Lot may or may not have known about Sodom. If he did, it did not keep him from going toward it. True to his word, Abraham went in the other direction. In Genesis 13:12 "Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom."

Lot pitched his tent toward Sodom at the first. When we next read of Lot he is in Sodom, living in a house in the city. I have wondered how a man who believed in God could live in such a place. If we are against sin how could such wickedness be tolerated day after day? It is said that he was vexed by their unrighteous deeds but, evidently not enough to leave. He was drawn in and although bothered by the sin, must have told himself that he needed to be there. People to this very day make excuses for things that they allow, that they know are not right.

Look at what it cost Lot and then decide if it was worth it. His herds, servants, and wealth are not mentioned anymore. He also lost his wife, daughters, and then fathered children by his other daughters while being drunk. Did he intend for all of this to happen? No, but he allowed it to happen by being lax with his spiritual life. He got too friendly with sinful things and paid the price like a lot of people do today. It is not enough just to be able to say, "I haven't done anything bad." We must also strive to do what is right. It is not always easy or popular but we must decide whom we follow and where we want to spend eternity.
