

Kristy Bledsoe and her children visited with Santa on Saturday during Light Up The River town at the courthouse. Her daughters, Kaitlyn and Emma, preferred sitting in Mommy's lap while their older brother, Josh, was quick to tell Santa what he wanted for Christmas.

A Sunday in December... presented by...

Friendship Baptist Church

Pastor Scott Rogers and congregation invite you to come enjoy an uplifting musical event!

with award-winning singer/songwriter... Mark Bishop

Free admission! Bring friends and family and find the true spirit of Christmas time!

Sunday December 8th - 2:00pm
Friendship Baptist Church
124 Hudson Avenue, Irvine, KY
A love offering will be taken during the service.

Jennifer Arthur sold handmade jewelry at Light Up The River Town's crafts fair. While in between customers, Jennifer made more jewelry.

Charles McKinney, a retired teacher, sold watercolor paintings at the crafts fair.

Wathena McKinney, Charles' wife and also a retired teacher, and her sister, Elwanda Allen, sold homemade jewelry. The jewelry included cameos and agate pieces.

Katie Farrell makes primitive crafts, which included holiday crafts and mason jar soap dispensers. Her son helped her at the crafts fair.

What's Your Local Motive!?

South Irvine

West Irvine

Irvine

Ravenna

SHIFT YOUR SHOPPING

Support Local and Independent Business This Holiday Season

Shop Local Independent Merchants!

UK
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY
Appalachian Center

Get on board And shop local!

Eastern Kentucky Local-Motive Alliance
www.whatsyourlocalmotive.com

