Estill Tribune Publisher's Note

Just this Tuesday morning, our family has lost the second of six siblings within the past four months. On December 27, 2013, our brother, Charles Allen "Charlie" Patrick passed away, and this morning, April 22, 2014, our sister, Betty Joyce Powell, passed away at 8:30 a.m. at Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital. She leaves behind four daughters and one son as well as numerous other family members including over a hundred first cousins. All will miss her. She had been battling cancer for nearly two years and we thought the battle was won. But just as a pastor said some months ago, "I can heal you today, but you're going to get sick again, because your body must die to achieve real life with our only Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." I truly believe Betty has achieved that real life. She gave her life to Christ many years ago and although she made mistakes and was not perfect, she truly loved all her family, friends; and I think even those who were her enemies as well. We'll miss Betty, but she has suffered enough and we know she will get the very best with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To all our Estill Tribune friends and family, thank you for the outpouring of support during the loss of Charlie and for what we know will be a continuing of that support during the loss of Betty. We don't know what we would do without our church friends and Estill Tribune friends and our faithful family members. Thank you all. We may not be able to print arrangements this week, but check EstillTribune.Com and we'll get them as soon as possible.

Thank you very much
