

Wanderings from the Woods & Water

to whip a jake decoy that was beside a hen decoy. The part he didn't see was me, up against a tree 15 yards away. His enticement to fight for a girl got him dead! This season got me to thinking about things.

The nature of the turkey is to gobble until the hen comes to find him. As hunters we try to reverse nature and talk to the gobblers real pretty. We put out decoys to entice gobblers so we can ultimately kill them. When a turkey falls fool for the pretty calling and pretty decoys it usually ends in death!

The wise gobbler who does not stray and endures the temptation lives to gobble another day. The wise gobbler will not break for any enticement. The foolish gobbler who is drawn away by his lust ends up dead.

James 1:12-15 comes to mind. "12 Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him. 13 When tempted, no one should say, 'God is tempting me.' For God is not tempting by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; 14 but each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own evil desire and enticed. 15 Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death."

The title of my column is "What kind of turkey are you?" Are you the wise turkey who will not stray, no matter the temptation? Are you the foolish turkey that is dragged away by evil desire?

If you fall in the category of the foolish turkey, I urge you to find Jesus! Know Jesus, Know Peace! No Jesus, No Peace! If you know Jesus, then share him with others!

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation!

See to ID
If you can invest in a pair of binoculars, do so. The other day I saw a new bird at my feeder. Because of sun glare, I could not identify it. Grabbing my binoculars, I was delighted when a male painted bunting came into view. He was gorgeous and stayed all day. Wow!

What Kind Of Turkey Are You?

Ok, before I get started, in this week's column I have to say, "Thank You" to a few folks for their help with Wounded Warrior Hunt.

The first person I want to thank asked me to not write about her in my Wounded Warrior turkey hunt column. So I didn't, I saved it for this week's column.

This lady is a Godly woman who seeks no credit. She and her staff work hard to make sure all the soldiers and guides eat a good lunch. Since I am sworn to never say her name in my column, I will just give a hint to who it is. If you're looking for the right place to eat; then, go to her restaurant.

I would also like to thank Irvine Outdoors for the gifts they donated to me to give the soldiers. I tried to negotiate with the co-owner Jerry Walsh to let me pay. Jerry answered with his strong, I think Yankee accent, "absolutely no" to paying and filled a box full of stuff for the Wounded Warriors. I think if I asked him again to pay he would have thrown me out! Thanks Jerry!

This turkey season was one of the toughest I can remember. I tried everything that I had in my turkey hunting tool box to kill a turkey. It seemed every turkey I came across either was with a dozen hens, or would gobble a thousand times, but would not come break from his strut zone. They just frustrated me to no end this season.

I finally got one with three days left in the season. He came in on a run ready

McIntosh for Jailer

Paid for by Randall McIntosh

Hello fellow Estill Countians,

My name is Randall McIntosh and I am a Republican candidate for Estill County Jailer.

I am 44 years old and the son of Floyd and Delores (Singleton) McIntosh. I have two brothers, Gary and Todd.

My wife is Ashley "Kyle" (Arvin) McIntosh, the daughter of Dwight and Diane (Smithers) Arvin. We have two boys, Elijah who is 8 and Kyran who is 4.

I have served the public for 20+ years in the role of Police Officer, Deputy Sheriff, Deputy Jailer, KSP Dispatcher, etc.

This July I am scheduled to retire from the Richmond Police Department and I am looking forward to a new challenge and a new career. I would like the opportunity to use my experience to explore the many options available for the jail to generate its own sources of revenue that are not currently being utilized. The Estill County Jail's budget takes up a very large portion of the county's budget and I would like to work to lessen this burden.

Education and Training:

- *1987 Graduate of Estill Co. High School
- *1991 Graduate of Bluegrass Community and Technical College
- *1997 Graduate of Dept. of Criminal Justice at Eastern Kentucky University
- *Over 1,000 hours of specialized training in Criminal Justice and Corrections.

With my work history and training for those 20+ years, I feel that I am qualified to be your next Jailer.

Your consideration and vote is appreciated,
Randall McIntosh
