The Estill Co. High School Future Problem Solving team competed in the Future Problem Solving Program International Global Issues team competition June 12-15, at Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa. This is the seventh consecutive year that Estill Co. has qualified to represent Kentucky at this competition. Team members Sydney Richardson, Christian Tipton, Katie Brewer and Kaylee Collins and Coach Leslie Cornett wish to thank Heather Combs, Pine Hill Baptist Church, Don and Donna Walters, and the Estill Co. Board of Education for helping to make the trip possible. They also extend their appreciation to the parents and all who supported them throughout the year.

Little Miss and Mr. Estill County

Kamden Bray was chosen as Little Mister Estill County and Katarna Smith was chosen as Little Miss Estill County. They will represent Estill County at the state fair in August. They will be escorted by Miss Estill County Keturah Crank. Runners-up were Cage Carter, right, and Emma Taylor, third from left.

Carders Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Bob & Linda Carder

Linda and Bob Carder of Irvine, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married in Dayton, Ohio, on July 11, 1964. They moved to Estill County in 1979. They have one child, a daughter, Tammy Sue, who was born October 17, 1967, and died February 24, 2011. Linda and Bob love living in this small town where everyone knows and cares for one another. They look forward to celebrating many more anniversaries here in this community.

Brent Noland won the Coca Cola Talent Contest and will be competing at the state fair in August.

Daven Freeman and Kala Wesley were runners-up in the Coca Cola Talent Contest.

In Memory Of Our Mother -- Leoma Woosley

Mother, it's been one year ago today since July 8, 2013. It has been the saddest year of our lives. Mother, we miss you so badly. You were a true mother and friend. The greatest in all the world. We love you so much.
