3 charged with having contraband

 The sergeant charged Richardson with public intoxication, promoting contraband first degree, and possession of a controlled substance.
 Richardson's bail was set at $5,000 cash on July 4. Court documents state she was arrested on a new charge while she had a pending case.

Deputies look for stolen farm equipment

Three pieces of farm equipment were reported stolen on July 3 by Richard Kirby of Dug Hill Road, Irvine.
 The equipment may have been stolen as early as late spring. The report says the farm equipment was sitting in a field on Kirby's property. Someone drove through the field and removed the equipment.
 The equipment was described as a draw bar hitch, harrows, and turning plows valued at $2,200.
 Deputy Randy Farthing is investigating. Anyone with information may contact the sheriff's office at 723-2323 during regular business hours or 723-2201 after hours.
