

Mansfield Graduates Rogers Scholars

See Page 2

Big Hill Tourney Winners - Page 15

Jerry G. Rose Releases 3-Volume Ravenna Book

See Page 2

The Estill County Tribune

EstillTribune.Com

50¢
INC 3¢ TAX IN KY

VOLUME 33, NUMBER 6 WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 2014 IRVINE & RAVENNA, KENTUCKY 40336 16 PAGES

Couple is arrested for burglary at mother's home & taking van

An Estill County couple has been charged with burglary at the home of the man's mother.

Trooper J. Carpenter and Deputy Doc Morris were dispatched at July 28, 10:12 p.m. to 1605 Doe Creek Road, Irvine. Three men and a woman were trying to break into the residence owned by Patricia Hinds.

The homeowner told the officers that she heard a loud noise in her basement. She added that two men and a woman were in her basement. One of the men was Hinds' 34 year old son, Christian H. Hobbs, who gave his address as 1605 Doe Creek Road.

Mrs. Hinds identified the woman as Alicia Riddell, 32, of 100 Bertha Wallace Drive, Irvine. She was unable to identify the other man in her basement.

On the way to Hinds' home, the officers observed a black 1998 Chrysler van which had been wrecked. Mrs. Hinds said the trio in her basement had taken the van without her permission and without keys.

Hobbs reportedly told the officers that he found keys in the van. Citations state that Hobbs and Riddell had gone into a trailer next door to hide. Inside the trailer, Trooper Carpenter said there were lots of broken what-nots and pictures.

The trooper said that Hobbs was unsteady on his feet and smelled strongly of alcohol.

Hobbs was charged with theft by unlawful taking or disposition (auto), second degree burglary, third degree criminal mischief, violation of a Kentucky EPO/DVO, and alcohol intoxication in a public place (first and second offense).

Riddell was reportedly the driver of the van when it wrecked.

The citation states that Riddell was very unsteady on her feet and kept falling head-first into numerous items including the floor.

Mrs. Hinds told the trooper that Riddell could not stand up in the basement, and it appeared that she was being dragged by her hair.

Riddell was charged with theft by unlawful taking or disposition (auto), second degree burglary, third degree criminal mischief, and public intoxication of controlled substance (excluding alcohol).

Hobbs' bail was set at $2,500 cash. When he is released from custody, he is to abide by the EPO/DVO.

Riddell's bail is also $2,500 cash. If she is released from custody, she is to have no contact with Hinds or Hobbs.

Court records state that both Hobbs and Riddell were arrested on new offenses while they had court cases pending.

Three-year-old Ramzee Sparks won the Division #4 (3-4 year-olds) at the Stanton Corn Festival last weekend. She then went on to compete for Little Miss Corn Silk where she was crowned 1st runner up.

Back in School

Estill County students returned to class Tuesday after a short summer break. Above, Gerald Flynn took kindergarten students on their first bus ride last Thursday. The students attended Kindergarten Camp at South Irvine P-K Center.

Woman is injured in rear-end crash at intersection of Winchester Road and Bypass

A Clay City woman received injuries during a rear-end collision on the Winchester Road on Thursday afternoon.

Gerald Duncan of Clay City had stopped his vehicle, a 2000 Honda Civic, on the Winchester Road at the Bypass intersection for a red traffic light.

Deputy Randy Farthing said that Cassandra McIntosh of White Oak Road, Irvine pulled up behind Duncan's car in a 1999 Chevy Prism.

The collision report states that McIntosh was unable to stop her vehicle and it struck Duncan's in the rear.

A passenger in Duncan's car, Tuana Poe, was transported by ambulance to Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital for treatment of injuries. No other injuries were reported.

McIntosh told the deputy that she had her dogs in the vehicle, and they had distracted her.

Farthing said the both vehicles received minor damages.

He charged McIntosh with not having a valid drivers license.

Candidates slow in filing for non-partisan offices

The deadline is next Tuesday

Who's going to run for school board, Ravenna mayor or council, and Estill County Soil Conservation members? Unless people start filing quickly, it appears that no one is running.

County Clerk Sherry L. Fox was out of office on Tuesday, but her staff said only two have filed for non-partisan offices. The filing deadline is Tuesday, August 12 at 4 p.m.

According to the clerk's office, Jack Stickney filed this Tuesday for the Estill County Soil Conservation Board. The conservation board usually gets only enough candidates to run to fill the vacant positions.

School board member Charlie Bill Muncie filed for re-election on Tuesday. He represents District 3, the Ravenna, Millers Creek, Cow Creek, and West Lawn precincts.

John Bicknell currently represents District 5 on the school board. District 5 is made up of West Irvine, Drowning Creek, and Schoolhouse precincts.

School board seats are four year terms. Districts 1, 2, and 4 will be up for re-election in 2016. The clerk's office said Stickney is the first and only filer for non-partisan positions.

Ravenna Mayor Estine Tipton has stated that she will not be running for Mayor of Ravenna. The mayor's term is a four-year term. Mayor Tipton was appointed to fill the remainder of Mayor Charles Crowe's term.

The terms of all six Ravenna council members will be up January 1. The council members serve two year terms.

Because the Irvine mayor and council are partisan, they had a filing deadline in January.

Questions about running for office, including the qualifications, can be answered at the county clerk's office.

Obituaries

Millard Gordon, 82

Glendon Johnson, 87

See Page 6

The Marching Engineers have been in band camp at the high school over the last few years. The band is preparing their competition piece, "Nevermore," the most musically and visually demanding show. More band photos on Page 16.

An apartment complex located on Reese Street near West Irvine Elementary caught on fire on Monday afternoon in the kitchen area. Three families were forced to leave their homes because of the damage caused by the fire. Brandon Morris, a neighbor, rescued a child from the unit.

Photo and caption courtesy of Tammi Milby and Cathy Dawes

Call (606) 723-5012 • Fax (606) 723-2743 • Email <News@EstillTribune.Com>