Lady Patriots Are 12-3

by MIKE WISEMAN
Estill Sports Contributor

After a slow 2-3 start, the Estill County Middle School 8th Grade Lady Patriots have reeled off 10 straight wins to take over first place in the Commonwealth Conference.

The ladies have used excellent team play and balanced scoring to put themselves in great shape to win two straight conference titles. They can play any type of game from up and down the court at break neck speed or slowing down and running a precision half court offense.

The teams that try pressure on the guards get destroyed by post players Taylor Duechle, Shelby Danyour, and Amelia Farmer. If opponents decide to clog the middle, sharpshooters Megan Bellamy and Shatarra Stewart make'em pay, three points at a time.

Fiesty guard Kiely Flynn dares you to give her an opening so she can drive and score.

Scoring Averages

LADY PATRIOT	PPG
Shatarra Stewart	7.8
Megan Bellamy	7.7
Taylor Duechle	7.2
Amelia Farmer	5.3
Kiely Flynn	5.0
Shelby Danyour	2.7

The 7th Grade Lady Patriots also find themselves in the midst of a good season with a record of 9-5. These second year players are beginning to gel and are hoping to make a run for the conference title as well.

The 6th Grade Lady Patriots record of 5-2 shows that the future looks bright as well.

Come out and support the Lady Patriots!!!!
