Marching Engineers Sweep Class 2A at MSU Competition

The Marching Engineers traveled to Morehead this weekend to compete in the Blue and Gold Championship of Marching Bands held on the campus of Morehead State University. The band swept class 2A winning best color guard, best percussion, and 1st place out of the seven bands in the class. The band once again advanced to finals competition where they finished 9th out of the field of 25 bands, 7 of which were from 5A schools. Both performances were excellent and the group continues to make steady improvements in preparation for next week's contest at Admiral Stadium in Danville. The photo above is of the Estill County Marching Band as they performed on Friday night in front of the home crowd at Hoover Niece Field.
