Ravenna Council discusses how salaries were set

by CATHY DAWES Estill County Tribune

Members of the Ravenna city council met in regular session on October 13, 2014. The council began by voting to hire Rodney Davis to handle the title searches and other legal work pertaining to the home renovations in Ravenna. Only one member Davis and that was William Van Cleve.

informed the council that Davis was the only one to rehe felt like Davis was a very good choice considering the in this type of work and that Davis also had very reasonable rates.

located in the flood plain and $100 per month. that the new homes will have have been completed.

that after looking through the ordinance books that he had not found an ordinance the council to contact the in regards to the mayor and was not in favor of hiring council's pay each month. He said that the city should have had an ordinance writ-Bryan Kirby from CEDA ten up and turned in by the with an ordinance exactly first Monday in May.

> "We need one and it's one," stated Van Cleve.

the only thing she could find was in former council erties that have been selected who was mayor at the time ficer. for the renovations. He said gave himself a raise and also flood stage once the surveys council that while she was in pay. office several years ago each William Van Cleve stated council member made $25 per month and her salary was $300 per month. She advised Kentucky League of Cities and ask an attorney for help. She said that they would be able to provide the council the way it should be written.

Tipton added that the spond about the position and against the law not to have council's pay remained the often works much more than used for no other purpose be able to trick or treat from same after she took office Mayor Estine Tipton said and that she had lowered her amount of experience he has that she had been review- own pay because the city Crowe told Van Cleve that the city had borrowed ing ordinances as well and was in such financial trouble he should have taken reat that time.

Kirby also instructed the member Joan Richardson's $100 a month was too himself instead of bringing council that they will have to book. Tipton said that in Oc- much money for one hour up the subject and then puthire a surveyor for the prop- tober 2011, Charles Crowe, a month," stated Louis Of-

Officer reminded the meet in groups of three to that subject during a meeting garding salaries of the coun-Former mayor Beverly several months ago and no cil and city employee's and had spoken with a lawyer to be built one foot above Thompson explained to the one was willing to take less

> Van Cleve also confronted the council about the city employee's pay and said that up the subject of the Municiit should also be in an ordinance.

Tipton about the pay of city Clerk Susan Lay. Tipton replied that Lay is on salary and that although on paper she is only required to work 23 hours per week, that Lay that a week.

Councilwoman Amy sponsibility and initiated "I've said all along that something on the ordinances ting all of it on the council.

The council agreed to ent people or were not in ex-

given multiple opportunities to give police the right information and was also told that giving false information

Rose has given false infor-

Rose was also charged with alcohol intoxication.

Rifenbark said during the

He said the Rose had a

was an arrestable offense.

He stated that Rose was istence.

that a few of the homes are raised the council's pay to council that he had broached work on the ordinances re- from their road fund. would have something ready by the next meeting in November.

> pal Road Fund. He said that the fund had been severely He questioned Mayor misused and that very little of the designated money had been used for sidewalks, street repairs, and street He added that according to the law, the money could be other than maintenance.

$4,000 last month to pay insurance liabilities from the road fund but the money had already been put back. She added that in speaking with the city clerk of Irvine that she thought it was okay The public is invited to atto do that because the city of Irvine also borrows money

Van Cleve said that he from the Kentucky League of Cities and was told that the money could not be used Van Cleve again brought for anything other than road maintenance.

> Tipton said that she would call herself on Tuesday and find out for certain what the rules on borrowing from the road fund are.

The council agreed to set lights in the past five years. trick or treat for the same night as the city of Irvine. Children 12 and under will 6-8 on Thursday October Mayor Tipton said that 30th in the city of Ravenna.

On November 8th, a ceremony will be held at the Veteran's Memorial Park for Veteran's Day. At that time World War II Veteran Claude Jones will receive medals for his service and dedication. tend the ceremony.

IPD arrests passenger John Doe along with driver on Friday night A male and female were was also served on Drake. Officer Rifenbark first bers. He said the numbers

both arrested after a traffic Friday night.

and Captain Adrian McKinney initiated a traffic stop on a 1999 blue Dodge driven by Melissa K. Drake, 44, of Sparks Street, Irvine.

Officer Rifenbark said that he discovered that Drake's operators license had been suspended for first unidentified, and IPD information and alcohol in- mation on past arrests. DUI. She was charged with driving on DUI suspended operators license.

An active bench warrant from Estill District Court en.

stop by IPD at Shell Mart on charge of drug paraphernalia was merged with operating Officer Karl Rifenbark a motor vehicle under the arrested on other charges, > was found guilty. issued saying Drake had violated the conditions of her dropped onto the sidewalk release by testing positive at the jail. for drugs in August.

called him John Doe.

He was later identified as Jeffery S. "Bodena" Rose, still no age and address giv-

In August of this year, a charged Rose with drug parwould come back to differaphernalia.

He said that Rose was influence, of which Drake and he found a straw in the man's right pocket. Capt. The bench warrant was McKinney found a needle and spoon that Rose had Rose was also charged investigation, he learned that Drake's passenger was at with giving a false name or toxication.

> Officer Rifenbark said strong odor of alcoholic bevthat during the traffic stop, erages and slurred speech. Rose kept giving police wrong social security num-

Irvine Council

Continued from Page 1

Dwight Arvin said he bought his farm on Kirkland in 1963 from Jewell Ridge Coal Co. He said the coal company wanted to access barges on the Kentucky River, but it apparently did not work out. Arvin had never gotten a city tax bill on the property until this year.

Joe Crawford addressed the council about new ventures proposed for Estill Development Alliance.

He stated the Estill Chamber of Commerce will pair up with Lily Mountain Nature Preserve on October 31 and November 1 for a scary fund raiser.

Bryant said that 35 cars participated in the car show on Saturday night. He added that was good because of the rain, and the group raised $350 for Toys for Tots.

The council granted two privilege license requests. Dustin Arvin will be locating Arvin's Heating and Cooling at 131 Main Street.

B&W Enterprises was given a license for a sports bar to be located at 214 Main Street, the former location of the Railroad Cafe. This business has applied for a license to serve alcohol.

An ordinance on the city's pay scale was tabled because the city attorney had to leave the meeting early. It will be discussed at the next meeting.

Councilwoman Nelle Williams asked about city audits. She was told the auditors were still four years behind.

The council discussed the vote on merging Irvine with Ravenna during the upcoming November election.

Police Beats

Timothy Little of Waco reported that his truck was broken into while it was parked overnight at Riddle Clem Road on October 2.

Sheriff Gary Freeman is conducting the investigation.

Tools valued at $770.79 were reportedly taken. The sheriff said the perpetrator gained to the truck by breaking out a window on the driver side. The truck belonging to Little Heating and Little Air. Anyone with information is asked to call the sheriff at 723-2323.

###

A woman was arrested on Estill Avenue on Friday evening for being intoxicated, her third time within 12 months.

Officer Karl Rifenbark said he was called to 117 Estill Avenue in reference to a family altercation.

Upon arrival, he stated that Sharon Robertson, 50, of Richmond was highly intoxicated.

He said she did not live at the address but was arguing with a relative who lived there.

He discovered that Robertson was recently released from jail on the conditions that she did not consume any alcohol.

Robertson was charged with alcohol intoxication, thirde or greater offense within 12 months and contempt of court.

###

An Irvine man was arrested for driving under the influence of drugs after an alert was issued for police to be looking for a blue 1999 Chevy.

Officer John Sturniolo pulled over a vehicle fitting the description at 103 River Drive on Wednesday night.

He said he had observed the vehicle driving east on Richmond Road and River Drive, and it was swerving.

The citation states that Phillip Cox, 39, of N. Hudson in Irvine failed field sobriety tests, and he refused a blood draw at the hospital.

Cox told the officer that he had taken prescription pain medicine on that date.

Sturniolo said the prescription was filled with 90 tablets on October 1 with directions for Cox to take three times a day. The officer said eight days later that 55 of the 90 painkillers had been removed from the bottle. ###

A West Irvine teen was arrested by IPD Officer Karl Rifenbark on a warrant for fourth degree assault.

The warrant was obtained by Deputy Russell Morrisfollowing an altercation on August 27, 2014.

The arrested teen was identified as Devin Cofey, 18, of Glory Street.

The warrant says that Coffey caused physical injury to Jacob Lewis by punching and kicking Lewis several times in the face and head.

Morris said the assault resulted in Lewis having seven staples in his head, along with swelling and bruising to his head and face.

Eva Watson holds up a tablecloth that she is crocheting in the pineapple pattern during Old Time Days. She expects it will take most of the winter to finish.

Estill woman charged with leaving scene of accident

An Estill woman was Baker's Pool Supply. charged with driving under the influence as well as leav- Dehart left the scene and ing the scene of an accident was located at 1120 Rice on Sunday afternoon.

A report by Deputy Randy Farthing says that Misty Dehart of Dry Branch Road, Irvine pulled into a drive at 1360 Rice Station Road on that Dehart was having an altercation with someone.

a Dodge van belonging to local hospital.

According to Farthing, Station Road.

He said the front of her vehicle, a 2002 Ford Taurus, was damaged. The business van had damage to its rear.

Farthing said that De-Sunday afternoon. He added hart's pupils were constricted and her eyes were glassy. He added that she The deputy stated that had slurred speech and was when Dehart attempted to unsteady on her feet. She leave, her vehicle struck refused a blood draw at the H.M. Arthur, right, dished up a bowl of soup beans for Jerry Rose during Old Time Days. The historical society cooked the beans all night and accepted donations during Old Time Days.

Glenn Richardson demonstrated the use of a draw knife at Old Time Days on Saturday. This is an annual event and it is free to the public.