Estill Community Chorus

The Estill County Community Chorus has announced the date for their Christmas Concert. The concert will be held Sunday December 7th at 3pm. and will be performed at First Baptist Church, 351 Broadway, Irvine.

The Irvine United Methodist Church Handbell Choir as well as the Estill County Dulcimer Club will also be on the program.

Rehearsals are held Thursdays at 7pm at First Christian Church, Main Street, Irvine. Everyone is welcome! Auditions are not required. Rehearsals will be every Thursday night, except October 30th and Thanksgiving November 27th. Please come out and join us.

The Estill Arts Council has once again partnered with the Community Chorus for this endeavor. Donations will be accepted at the concert. These donations help to provide honorariums, when needed, as well as the purchase of music.

Carol Anne Wilson is the Director with Nancy Farmer as the accompanist. Ann Sidumak will be assisting with rehearsals as needed.

If you have sung with the chorus before we are asking that you come back and sing with us for this very special Christmas Concert.

Scholarships are still available. Please see Carol Anne Thursday night or call her at 859-556-0163 for more information.

Overlooking The Obvious

by BOB CASEY, Preacher
Church of Christ, 262 Broadway, Irvine, KY

The definition of obvious is: to overlook things that are clearly seen, or plain. We can be guilty of overlooking things that are plain in our daily activity. We can be guilty of overlooking things that are plain in our daily activity. Many times while traveling we may fail to heed the highway sign indicating our turning point and drive right past it. Why does this happen? It mostly occurs when our focus is directed towards something else. Now when I think about this in matters of faith, we may, and can neglect the obvious things that are so very important to our spiritual lives. So we need to stay focused upon the realities of life.

One of the things we are faced with is: that we are now living in a world that is filled with evil men making an attempt to impose their will upon others, and if they are not able to do this, murder is the result. We see this almost daily in our world. So then, in times like this, what should one do to insure their eternal security? First, start by focusing our attention upon what the Bible says, and then obeying what is clear and plain to understand. Paul said to his gospel son Timothy in II Corinthians 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. That the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." So again, the things of God are clearly seen through His word.

Now, what we need to do is to develop the fortitude to arise and obey them. In Psalm 119:9, "Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed therunto according to thy word." All need to hear our Lord and obey Him because it is for certain that our Saviour is going to return and bring all of us to eternal judgment. II Corinthians 5:10 is plain concerning this event. We must not overlook it. And if our Lord chooses to tarry until our days are over, each of us will enter into fleshly death. Hebrews 9:27 says this is every man's appointment. I am not telling you new or unseen things. We all see the hospitals and funeral homes that are nearly in business every day. Just look at all the cemeteries there are among us. These are all very obvious unto us all, so why do we let other things turn our attention away from the inevitable. Just ignoring them will not make them go away. So in the face of all these obvious things, why do we not prepare now for them. So our Lord's return is certain, judgment is for certain, and our death is for certain, but we don't know just when. So why gamble with your soul? If you do, you will lose every time.

Sincerely, Bob Casey 1-859-369-4165

Seeds of Hope

There are some psychologists who believe that our need for safety, structure and stability are more important than nearly anything else. Perhaps they are right.

When we look around and feel threatened and insecure, we become frightened and build what we think are protective walls to make us safe and secure. Yet, often the protective walls we have wrapped around us are suddenly removed and we become frightened and afraid.

Could it be that God is offering us an unplanned opportunity to grow closer to Him? Disaster strikes and we immediately grasp for His protection.

We suddenly realize we desperately need Him and since there is no one else to turn to call on Him for help. We need a miracle working God and want Him to do something special for us. So, we call on Him in desperation because we need help and believe that only He can rescue us.

David did not have an easy life. From infancy to old age he knew and experienced the stress and strain and storms of life. We find many examples of this in his writings. One is when he cried, "I give my soul to You, O Lord. All of me - body, mind and spirit - Lord, is now Yours!" Save me and "Let me not be ashamed" for doubting You. David's army and amour could not help.

Overwhelmed with fear he called upon God. He knew t

Flavor Fall Feast with Red Cabbage

by ANGELA SHELF MEDEARIS and GINA HARLOW

Certain foods remind me of fall. A tray of beautiful red cabbages with a hint of purple and blue on their ruffled leaves resembles a bouquet of flowers. Raw red cabbage is a flavorful addition to salads, or it can be slow-cooked to sweet perfection as a side dish.

One of my favorite recipes for red cabbage is from award-winning cooking instructor Rick Rodgers's cookbook, "Autumn Gatherings: Casual Food to Enjoy With Family and Friends" (Morrow Cookbooks). From cabbage, squash and root vegetables to cranberries, apples and hearty, savory dishes, Rodgers shares uncomplicated recipes that are perfect for a cozy, comforting meal or a holiday feast.

This week's recipe, which features red cabbage, sausages and apples, is a classic example of German cooking and celebrates the bounty of the season. Rodgers says that he "learned early in my cooking life not to try and rush the cabbage, as it needs plenty of time to soften into the melting mass of sweet and sour ingredients that makes it so unique, and becomes the perfect place to cook your favorite sausages."

The apples and apple juice enhances the sweetness of the cabbage, and the vinegar preserves the color of the cabbage. The flavors of the dish intensify the next day, so if possible, prepare the cabbage ahead of time. Nestle the sausages in the pot, let them cook while the cabbage is re-heating, and enjoy the flavors of fall!

Oktoberfest Sausages with Red Cabbage

- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil, divided
- 6 slices thick-sliced bacon, coarsely chopped
- 1 large onion, thinly sliced
- 2 Golden Delicious apples, peeled, cored and cut into 1/4-inch thick wedges
- 1 (2 1/2-pound) head red cabbage, cut into wedges, core removed and thinly sliced
- 1 1/2 cups apple juice
- 1/3 cup cider vinegar
- 1/2 cup packed light brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 bay leaf
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 12 assorted sausages, such as bratwurst, Weisswurst, hot links and knockwurst, pricked with a fork

1. To make the red cabbage and apples, heat 1 tablespoon of the oil in a very large Dutch oven or flame-proof casserole over medium heat. Add bacon and cook, stirring occasionally, until crisp and browned, about 8 minutes. With slotted spoon, transfer to paper towels to drain, leaving fat in pan.

2. Add onion and cook, stirring often, until golden, about 10 minutes. Transfer to a bowl. Add remaining 2 tablespoons oil in Dutch oven and heat until hot but not smoking. Add apples and cook, stirring often, until lightly browned, about 3 minutes. Add cabbage, apple juice, vinegar, brown sugar, thyme and bay leaf, and stir well to coat the cabbage with the liquid. (The vinegar helps the cabbage hold its color.)

3. Bring to a boil over high heat. Reduce heat to medium-low and cover. Simmer, stirring occasionally, until cabbage is tender, about 1 1/2 hours. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

3. Bury sausages in the cabbage and cover. Cook until they are heated through, about 12 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer cabbage and sausages to a large serving bowl, remove the bay leaf, and tent with aluminum foil. Bring the cooking liquid in the pot to a boil over high heat and cook, stirring often, until reduced to about 1/2 cup, about 5 minutes. Pour over the cabbage and sausages and serve hot. Makes 6 servings.
