

Engineers Marching Band Finishes As State Runner-Up -- Page 16

Tammy Terry's
Front Porch
Ponderings
Page 3

50¢
INC 3¢ TAX IN KY
8 04879 20455 8

The Estill County Tribune

EstillTribune.Com

VOLUME 33, NUMBER 19 WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2014 IRVINE & RAVENNA, KENTUCKY 40336 18 PAGES

Man is charged with riding bike under influence

An Estill man has been charged with operating a bicycle while under the influence.

Irvine Officer Sam Hensley said he initially noticed the bicycle on the Irvine bridge, and it pulled into the Shell Mart parking lot at 10:45 p.m. on Monday, October 27.

Hensley said the rider was unsteady and nearly fell off the bike many times.

The officer said that Thomas W. Estes, 25, of McKee Road, Irvine, failed field sobriety tests.

Estes was arrested and charged with operating a non-motorized vehicle under the influence of intoxicants.

The citation states that a search then yielded six 600mg neurontin, 25 300mg neurontin, 1 1mg lorazepam, 4 10mg diazepam, and one suboxone strip in Estes' pants' pocket.

Estes was then charged with two counts of illegal possession of a legend drug and three counts of possession of a controlled substance, third degree.

Band is 2nd in the state!

The Marching Engineers of Estill County High School finished in second place in the championships of the 2A Class Bands on Saturday. The band qualified for the semi-finals held at Eastern Kentucky University on Saturday night after their performance in Boyle County earlier in the day. The band is pictured above with the plaque they received. The band director, Jason Bowles, left of the plaque, and band members also received medals. More photos and an article are on Page 16. Photos and article submitted.

Election Results

Because of the Estill Tribune's deadline for printing, we regret that we are unable to bring you election results until next week's issue.

However, we will have local vote totals on The County Estill Tribune's facebook page as soon as they become available.

You may also visit our webpage for the Estill County Tribune at estilltribune.com. Thank you.

Avery Floyd was dressed as a bumble bee for Halloween. She is the daughter of Daniel and Kristy Floyd.

Couple is arrested again for theft, second time in month of October

An Irvine couple face more charges. They were arrested Thursday for the second time in less than two weeks.

Tasha Kay Maher, 28, and Justin T. Patrick, 26, both of 218 High Street, were each charged on October 30 with theft by deception and fraudulent use of a credit card.

Irvine Police Chief Brad Smith said the pair had used an ATM/Debit card which belonged to Carol Tyree on several occasions to obtain money from ATM machines around Irvine.

Chief Smith said that Patrick was never allowed access to the card.

Both admitted to him they were not authorized to use the card.

Because the transactions exceed $500, the theft offense is also a felony.

Maher and Patrick were arraigned in Estill District Court on Halloween Day. Each of them pleaded not-guilty to their charges.

District Judge Bo Leach scheduled a preliminary hearing for Maher and Patrick on November 5.

Bail for Maher has been set at $5,000 cash while Patrick's bail amount was not immediately available.

Maher and Patrick were charged October 13 with taking a laptop computer from Tyree and selling it at Dollar Deals in early October. Patrick was lodged in the Estill County Detention Center then because there were two bench warrants on him for failing to appear in court.

Tyree also gives an address of 218 High Street, Irvine.

Officer Karl Rifenbark assisted Chief Smith in the investigation.

Obituaries

Jo Berryman, 83
Sandra Davis, 64
Joseph Jones, 61
Vernon McKinney, 91
Naomi Richardson, 95
William Richardson, 68
Betty Tipton, 79
Richard Vader, 68
Robert Watson, 57
Sheri Weaver, 41
Willie Wilson, 54
See Page 6

Veterans Day

Nov. 11

The public is invited to a program honoring our veterans on Saturday, Nov. 8, 11 a.m. at Veterans Memorial Park in Ravenna.

Kylah Covey, daughter of Brian and Traci Covey, dressed as a beautiful green monster on Thursday night for Trick or Treat. The crowd was really larger than usual because of the good weather.

Tribune Photos by Cathy Dawes

The Grinch was able to meet The Cat in the Hat during the Trick or Treat Trot on Broadway last Thursday night. Paul Paguada, a member of the FCCLA, was dressed as The Grinch and Miles Hale was dressed as the Cat in the Hat.