

Laycee Puckett, James Werner, and Marlo Puckett were all smiles during the annual Trick or Treat Trot that was organized by the FBLA from the Estill County High School. Tribune Photo/Cathy Dawes

Trick or Treaters went to the bed and breakfast on Main Street, which was decorated for fall and Veterans Day.

Branson Jones wasn't scared of the "ghosts and goblins" at the Estill County Detention Center.

OPEN HOUSE

RIVER VIEW PLACE

Celebrate with us the
 "Changing of the Seasons"

Sat., Nov. 15th • 10^{am}-4^{pm}

- Rebecca Patrick Howard, local author of numerous books, including the Haunted Estill County series and Taryn's Camera series, will be having a book signing of her new releases from 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.
- Many nice handmade door prizes from our vendors including a Fall Wreath, Large Owl, Wildberry Incense, Crossroads Candles, Stick Kid Pendant, Handcrafted Birdhouse, Personalized Monogrammed Pendant, Hair Bows, Set of Handcrafted Gift Cards, Fall Thanksgiving Silk Centerpiece, Basket of Locally-Made Soap Products, More being added daily!
- Live Music with "The Appalachian Dulcimers" 10 a.m. - 12 Noon
 "Brett Noland" 12 - 2 p.m.
- Many Vendor Specials • Refreshments
- Come tour our 100-year-old hotel, enjoy live music and refreshments, have your book signed by the author and spend the day.
- Look over our large selection of antiques, vintage sterling silver pieces, local arts & crafts, gift items, candles, incense, furniture, toddler clothing and more!
- Bring your camera and take a photo of the wonderful view of the mountains and river from the third floor windows.

105 Main Street, Irvine

HERE'S TO THE PURSUIT OF:

BAPTIST HEALTH®

Be a healthier you.

Here's to knowing your heart health. Take a free online heart assessment now at FindYourHealth.com/heart.