

Estill Patriots 6th & 7th Graders Win 5th District Titles

The Estill County Middle School 7th Grade and 8th Grade Patriots participated in and won their respective 56th District Tournament, Saturday, November 22, 2014 at Lee County High School in Beattyville. They 7th Grade Patriots beat Powell in the first round, 53-31, and Owsley County in the finals, 52-30. Justin Stamper was named 7th Grade MVP. They have a record right now of 6-2, only losing to a really big Rockcastle County team and a good Lexington Christian team. The 7th graders are coached by Mark Chaney.

The boys 6th Grade Patriots beat Powell, 41-5, in the first round and Owsley, 40-15, in the finals, to win the district. They are currently 8-0 this season. Seth Martin is the 6th grade coach and is assisted by John Clem and Ryan

Powell. The 8th Graders lost in the first round to a good Powell County team.

(Photos and information courtesy of Rebecca Click)

Blake Walters killed a 4 pointer during gun season.

2014 56th District Tournament 7th Grade Champions – Estill County Middle School Patriots
Left to right, front: Conner Hall, Matthew Woolery, Micah Adams, Chase Muncie, and Cody Hatton. Back: 6th grade coach Seth Martin, Justin Stamper, Cobbe Click, Lucas Puckett, Seth Masters, Ethan Webb, Micah Swim, Chase Rawlins and 8th grade coach Jordan Whitehead. Not pictured 7th grade coach Mark Chaney.

“Gather Around the Table of Thanks” Family Fun Night at Estill County Middle School

2014 56th District Tournament 6th Grade Champions – Estill County Middle School Patriots
Left to right, front: McKeaden Wilburn, Isaac Napier, Andrew Elam, Coben Clem and Linnon Abney. Back: head coach Seth Martin. Dylan Long, Dustin Beeler, Cobbe Click, Kamden Powell, Dean Tucker, Trevin Niece, Will Isfort and ast. coach Ryan Powell. Not pictured ast. coach John Clem and player Jacob Birchfield.

Estill County Fair Board Holds Banquet and Awards Night

A.D. Noland is presented a plaque recognizing his induction into the Estill County Agriculture Hall of Fame by Estill County Fair Board member Kenneth Rice. At left is Jason Crowe and Mrs. Noland.

Harold Worrell is one of the four 2014 inductees into the Estill County Agriculture Hall of Fame. Left to right are Jason Crowe, Fred Brown Jr., sons Tim Worrell and David Worrell, Kenneth Rice and Worrell's grandson Clarence Worrell.

Missy and Teddy Hunt are honored for their service to the Estill County Fair Board as they retire. Jason Crowe presents their plaque.

Fairboard president Fred Brown Jr. is named “Fairperson of the Year” for 2014 as presented by Jason Crowe.

Jason Crowe presents a retirement plaque to Earl and Javenne Brandenburg during the Estill County Fair Board's banquet and awards night.

NOTE: Fred Ginter and Ralph Rice were also named to the Estill County Agriculture Hall of Fame but were not able to attend the awards banquet.