

WEST IRVINE INTERMEDIATE CHORUS PRESENTS HIGHLIGHTS FROM DISNEY'S FROZEN

The West Irvine Intermediate Chorus, under the direction of Rick Chaney, presented Highlights from Disney's Frozen on Thursday, December 4th at 6:00 p.m. in the gym. Songs included were: "Frozen Heart," "For

The First Time in Forever," "Love is an Open Door," "In Summer," "Let it Go," and "Do You Want to Build a Snowman?" Mr. Chaney would like to thank the students, parents/guardians, family, and grandparents as well as the school staff for this successful choral music performance event. Special thanks to Mr. Randall Christopher's team who set up risers, our custodial staff, Steve Harrison, Doris Harrison, and Kathy Hall for their assistance, Mrs. Jodi Sims for helping with the staging, videography, and sound technical support, and Mrs. Cindy Robinson and her students for themed wall decorations and other props.
