

One of the visitors to Story Time at the public library was Mrs. Santa. Of course, Santa was there too. Mrs. Santa told the children a story.

In recent years, blow-up Christmas decorations have become popular. This blow-up snowman on Main Street of Ravenna is taller than the house. It also makes the snowman beside it appear to be a dwarf.

Rebecca Snowden played carols at the Elizabeth Witt Christmas party.

Small groups of band students played in the lobby of Estill County High School before River City Player's productions of "The Best Little Christmas Pageant Ever."

Mary wrapped "baby Jesus" in swaddling clothes during "The Best Little Christmas Pageant Ever" presented by River City Players.

Bobby Crowe and Sonja Estes Reece played carols on the dulcimer.

Snowman were for sale at the Arts and Crafts Show.

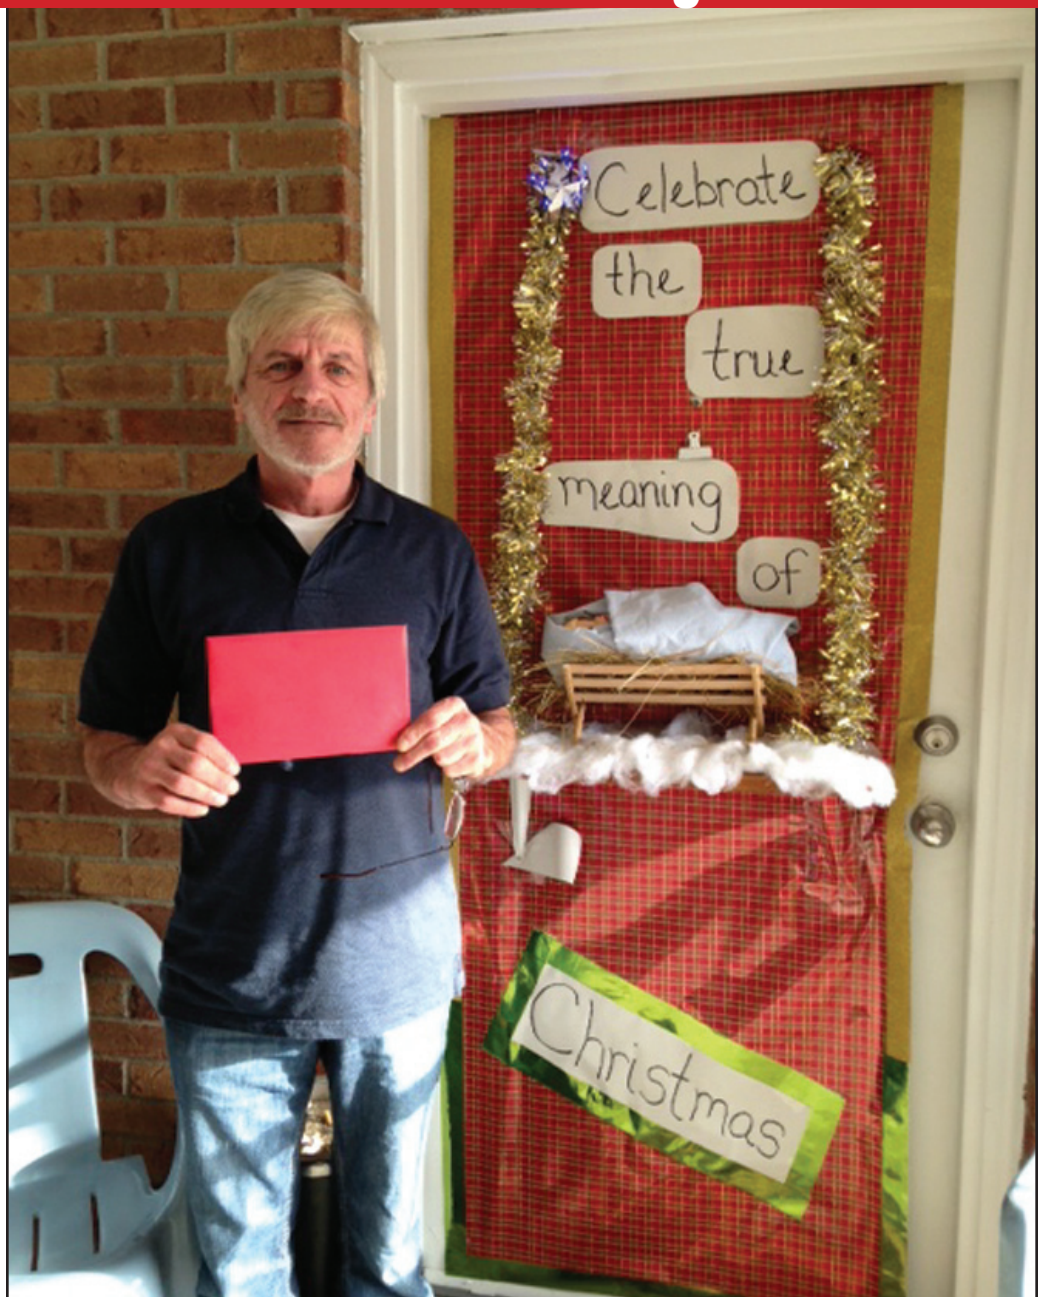

The youth of Wisemantown United Methodist Church and their friends presented the Christmas Pageant on Sunday, December 21st in the Sanctuary of the church.

Northwood Apartments I, II and III's Christmas "Door Decorating" Contest

Irene Boyd

Russell "Glen" Kelley

Northwood Apartments I, II & III held a "Christmas" door decorating contest this year. Russell " Glen" Kelley (right) is the second place winner and Irene Boyd (left) is the first place winner. Congratulations!