forgotten about the bathroom break she was begging for. She took aim and with the squeeze of the trigger Mariah hit the button buck perfect. As it fell, the excitement overtook her bladder and the restroom break came earlier than expected.

The second button buck had ran off after the shot but come back in just a few minutes. It was Kaylee's turn to see if she could hit her mark. She squeezed the trigger hitting her mark and blew a hole in the blind. In Kaylee's excitement she quickly flipped the blind off all three to see the deer she had just harvested.

A father and his two girls enjoying God's creation. It was definitely a hunt to remember. Brian said "that is what hunting is all about and God sure did bless them with a wonderful hunt!"

Hey, ladies' hunting is just not for boys. Dads, take your daughters hunting! You might have one of those hunts to remember. Plus you will get to spend some quality time with your daughter enjoying God's creation!

I would like to thank Brian for sharing his story and CONGRATS to Kaylee and Mariah. I am always looking for a good story to write about. If you have a good hunting story you want to share then give me a shout.

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation.

A Hunt to Remember

On occasion I get to write about other peoples wanderings in the woods and on the water. This week I get to write an awesome story about a dad and his two daughters on a hunt to remember.

On December 27, 2014 Brian Riddell and his two daughters (Kaylee & Mariah) took advantage of free youth deer hunt weekend. The three arrived around 6:30 a.m. to KY River WMA. They set up a blind on a wooded ridge top scattered with oaks.

Brian knew the deer would arrive around 8:30 a.m. Brian had hunted the same ridge a couple weekends prior. It was the same ridge where Brian made a double doe kill with one shot from his bow. That's a story you can talk to him about. I will say the shot was AWESOME! So he knew about the exact time the deer would show up from his previous hunt.

At 8:10 a.m., Mariah started begging to go visit the bathroom. Brian was begging her to hold on because the deer would show up very soon. Finally Brian convinced Mariah to hold on for 20 minutes to see if the deer showed up. It wasn't long until the first button buck showed up.

The button buck closed the distance to 25 yards with a second button buck not too far behind. Mariah had

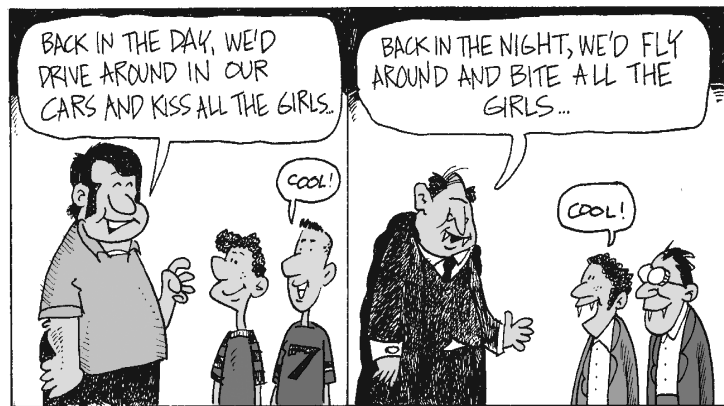

Welcome to Birding!

If you want to attract colorful songbirds to your backyard, fill a tube feeder with black oil sunflower seed or toss white proso millet on the ground. It won't take very long before you see your first cardinal pair. I promise, you'll be hooked and won't regret it.
