Maudie's Naughties

Too Much Sunshine

Esmerelda, Mitzi and Bambi are walking around a junkyard looking for a part for Esmerelda's car. The sun is so hot each one decides to use a piece of a car to keep the sun out of their eyes.

Esmerelda holds up a rim in her hands and says, "Gosh, that's much better," she says as she puts the hub cap over head like a cap to keep the sun away.

Mitzi hoists a seat on her shoulders and said, "Gosh, I'm hot too!" as she puts the seat over her head to keep the sun out.

Bambi grabs a left front door and says, "Gosh, I'm hot, too!" So she rolls down the window and sticks her head out and said, "Ahhh, hey girls, can you fell the breeze!?!?!?"

Stayin' Alive

A cowboy tells his grandson the secret to a long life. He says, "You gotta sprinkle a little gunpowder on your oatmeal, see. If you do, you'll live to a nice ripe old age."

So the cowboy does this religiously every day, and sure enough, lives to the nice ripe old age of 96.

When he dies he leaves behind four children, eight grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren . . . and a 16-foot hole in the wall of the crematorium.

Landing

Bambi and Trixie are trying to land an airplane. They start descending and as they touch the ground the Trixie screams, "Bambi, pull up, the runaway is ending!" She swiftly gets the plane back up in the air. They make a big turn and start descending again.

The moment they touch the ground, Trixie screams again, "Get the plane up, Bambi, the runaway is ending!"

Bambi swiftly gets the plane back up in the air. They make a big turn and start descending again. This goes on again and again . . . During their fourth descent Bambi says, "This is so dumb, Trixie, they build this huge and expensive airport but with such a short runway."

"I know," answers, "But look how wide they made it!"

Sound Mindedness

One day at a mental hospital, while a couple is walking past the hospital swimming pool, Jim slips and falls into the deep end. He sinks to the bottom of the pool and stays there. Edna promptly jumps in to save him. She swims to the bottom and pulls Jim out.

When the head nurse director becomes aware of Edna's heroic act she immediately orders her to be discharged from the hospital, as she now considers her to be mentally stable.

When she goes to tell Edna the news she says, "Edna, I have good news and bad news. The good news is you're being discharged; since you were able to rationally respond to a crisis by jumping in and saving the life of another patient, I have concluded that your act displays sound mindedness."

The bad news is that Jim, the patient you saved, hung himself in the bathroom with his bathrobe belt right after you saved him. I am so sorry, but he's dead."

Edna replies "He didn't hang himself, I put him there to dry. How soon can I go home?"

Genies Are Not Real

Junior, Bubba and Howard Green are stuck on an island. One day, they are walking along the beach and discover a magic lamp. They rub and rub, and sure enough, out pops a genie. The genie says, "Since I can only grant three wishes, you may each have one."

Bubba says, "I've been stuck here for days. I miss my family, my wife, and my life. I just want to go home."

POOF! Bubba gets his wish and he is returned to his family.

Then, Junior says, "I miss Ma and Pa and my favorite hunting dog. I wish I could go home too."

POOF! Junior gets his wish and he is returned to Needmore.

Howard looks so depressed, the genie asks, "Hey, what's the matter?"

"I wish my friends were still here."

Women And Men

Women are like apples on trees. The best ones are at the top of the tree. Most men don't want to reach for the good ones because they are afraid of falling and getting hurt. Instead, they just get the apples from the ground that aren't as good, but easy to get . . . So the apples at the top think something is wrong with them, when in reality, they're amazing. They just have to wait for the right man to come along, the one who's brave enough to climb all the way to the top of the tree. Share this with other women who are good apples, even those who have already been picked!

And . . . Men? Men are like a fine wine. They start out as grapes, and it's up to women to stomp the crap out of them until they turn into something acceptable to have dinner with.

Letter To The Editor

Going To The Doctor

Going to the doctor sure has changed, last several years. Used to, when you went, the doctors acted like they cared; no matter if you was in pain.

Now, you go and no matter how much your are hurting, the doctor just looks at you like you are crazy. Don't know about you, but I'm not crazy about going to the doctor in the first place.

Since I've had "grand mal" seizures since I was a boy, I know what it feels like to wake up and it feels like the top of my head is going to blow off. Feels like someone took a ball bat and beat you with it. Every part of you hurts.

Hurt my back in the '90s. All the doctor wanted to give for pain was something which was like a string aspirin. But I was walking around feeling like a needle was stuck in my back. Finally, the chiropractor was the only way to get the pain to go away.

I would like to be able to walk around and work in the garden now. But, I can't work but 5 or 10 minutes without sitting down. I can't even stand in front of the stove to cook for 15 minutes.

How do all the people get so many pain pills. You talk to people who get 5 or 10 pain pills a day. But they look like they don't have anything wrong with them. But doctors give them all kinds of pills. If I could, I would stop the pain myself. But, why is it that people in pain can't get help? Do you think this is right? For a doctor to look at your pain like you are stupid because you hurt?
