The Holy Spirit by BOB CASEY, Preacher

Church of Christ, 262 Broadway, Irvine, KY

All one has to do to hear the term Holy Spirit, or Holy Ghost, is to turn on your radio, TV, and the term will be used over and over. I often wonder just how many are acquainted with the knowledge of the Holy Spirit, and if they really know all, or some of the workings and characteristics of the same.

The definitions of Holy means to be liken unto God, the second means to be totally dedicated to God, thirdly, it means to be sacred.

The first time the Holy Ghost, or Holy Spirit is mentioned in the New Testament is Matthew 1:18-20. Here we see the Holy Spirit in action as He appears unto Mary, to foretell of her giving birth to the Son of God and, unto Zacharias, the Holy Spirit also tells of the birth of John who was to be a forerunner of the Christ.

In Matthew 1:20 the Holy Spirit is called "The Angel of the Lord," then in chapter 11, verses 19-28 unto Joseph warning him to flee with his family to Egypt. Again, his work of guidance and protector.

In Luke 1:26 His name is called Gabriel. Notice in John 14:26 the Holy Spirit is called the comforter, and He would be sent in the name (authority) of Jesus. Plus he would be the teacher to the apostles (only) to bring back to their memory all things that were taught to them concerning Jesus. Again, notice that the Comforter or Holy Spirit would not come until our Lord departed from them and went back to the father. Again in John 16:3, He is spoken of in the male gender, called He. The Lord also said when I am departed I will send Him unto you. His word was to reprove the world of sin, and judgment, and of righteousness. Again notice verses 13-14 when He would come, the spirit of truth is His characteristic. He would guide the apostles unto all truth. And He would glorify our Lord, In Revelation 1:1-3, we see the angel of the Lord giving the apostle a message to be written in the book of the seven churches of Asia. So as in the Hebrew letters we see these Holy men writing as guided by the Holy Spirit.

At this time's sake, I want to get to this all important fact. The Holy Spirit was going to recall and direct the words of the New Testament written, and it was to be all truth. Paul said in II Timothy 3:16, that all scripture is given by inspiration of God. If this is true, and I believe it to be, then we need to be very careful and very respectful concerning how we treat it. This is a very serious warning given in Matthew 12:31-32: All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. What is our Lord saying? The Holy Spirit caused the New Testament to be written to save all men. So then, if one says one word of it is not true, salvation will never be theirs to enjoy here on earth, and neither will there be hope for them in the hereafter. To blaspheme means to cause indignity, intentionally toward sacred things. Also to deface the divine message! So remember this, if you disbelieve and teach against the same, there is no salvation for you ever!

Sincerely, Bob Casey

seeds of Hope

Why did Jesus choose twelve disciples? Was there some significance in that number? Could it have been because there were twelve months in the Jewish calendar, or because they divided their day into twelve hours or because there were twelve tribes of Israel?

We find the answer in Mark's gospel: "that they might be with Him!" Jesus wanted His "friends" to be with Him and learn from Him. Psalm 24:14 says, "The Lord is a friend to those who fear Him. He teaches them His covenant" - His plan of salvation.

Someone once said, "A friend is a person who knows you and likes to be with you in spite of your faults." This seems to go beyond "love." Love is "doing" something for someone because they have a need.

It is a gracious thought to know that He wants us to be His "friends." The picture represented in this verse is that of two friends sitting on a couch having a confidential conversation. What a wonderful way to think of our relationship with Jesus: sitting next to Him and quietly talking to Him about eternal life - His covenant with His people - His friends!

How amazing it is to think that we can share thoughts with Him as a friend. What an opportunity He offers us: to sit with Him as a friend and ask Him to teach us His covenant - His plan for our salvation.

We can do this - be with Him - by reading His Word and talking with Him in prayer and meditation.
