

Times Remembered Betty A. Young
BYoung505@Windstream.Net

I attended Colton's basketball championship on Saturday. I had missed most of his games due to illness during December and January.

His team is the Knicks that went 10-2 for the season and won the league championship defeating the Lakers 23-17. Colton scored 15 of those points. He also won the foul shooting championship, hitting twelve in a row. In the semi-final game he scored 21 points. He had an awesome game.

Colton's game has improved since his first year playing; it is funny how he has developed his basketball skills each year. He definitely works hard at it. While the high school girls practice, he shoots or plays pickup games with older kids at the top of the gym.

When he was two weeks old he went to his first basketball game; the 11th Region Tournament at Eastern Kentucky University. His "Nona" kept him every game and cheered the team on; now he doesn't want to sit with "Nona," he sits on the bench or behind the bench with his friends. The other night he even called an out of bounds play and the girls ran it; needless to say he just about got in trouble. He says he wants to be a teacher and coach like mommy and daddy; poor kid!

I am very proud of him and his work ethics in sports and school. He's in kindergarten and excels in his class academically. Colton is gearing up for baseball now.

Just a reminder that softball and baseball in Estill County is starting. Bob's middle school team has been working at conditioning for about a month now, and try outs are next week. Spring can't be far away.

Incidentally, Bob is the new Middle School Girls Softball Head Coach. He and Assistant Coach Mike Long are already conditioning the girls for try-outs next week. This year promises to be an exciting season. Twenty-two girls showed up to condition this year.

Also Keith Adams, Tom Jones, Shaun Hale and Lori Collins will be assistant coaches.

Betty's grandson, Colton Helton
