Success in the Christian life begins with our being willing to be willing. It is our willingness, our who we become, what those seeking Him. we live for and give our lives to. and gives us an excellent waiting to destroy him. program of being willing David knew that if God to be willing to become was with him no force a "man after God's own was powerful enough heart." He asked God to to harm him or hurt him. O Lord, (and) Lead me enemy might be, those along right paths." This who believe in God have short, simple and specific nothing to fear. No one prayer exposes David's or no thing can undo the desire: to know God and to make Him known.

When he asked God any attack of Satan. to "teach" him, David was pleading for God to give him guidance. This prayer did not arise out of need to confess his sins. It came from a deep desire to have an intimate relationship with God - to experience Him as a friend and confidant. David was well aware of the fact that if he did not allow God to be his teacher, he would not enjoy God's protection and would not be "led innermost desire, to want along right paths." And if to know God, understand he did not travel on "right Him and do His will that paths," he certainly could makes the difference in not make God known to

David, in this verse, also prays for "victory over David set the example his enemies" who were Teach me how to live, Regardless of whom the work of God. What He has done will withstand
