

Estill County Youth Safety Day

Touchtone Rural Electric Cooperative representatives demonstrated consequences of being careless around electric lines to Estill County's 4th-graders on Thursday.

Photo submitted by Eric Baker, Co-op Extension Agent

Melissa Nord, WLEX-TV Meteorologist, talked about weather safety and preparedness.

Photo submitted by Eric Baker, Co-op Extension Agent

Estill County Emergency Personnel assisted with the mock ATV disaster on Thursday. Above, a class of 45th graders has their picture made in front of an ambulance.

Tribune photo/Delores Rowland

Patrick Younts, KY Dept. of Fish & Wildlife Conservation Officer discussing safety with hunting, fishing, and boating.

Photo submitted by Eric Baker, Co-op Extension Agent

Francine Bonny demonstrated how to set a table formally and formally to students in Charlotte O'Briend's leadership class at Estill County High School on Thursday. The students will be able to take the skills they learned in proper etiquette when dining out.

Above is a formal table setting that students observed during their lesson on dining etiquette. Photo right: A student is learning how to set a table. About 30 students went to Michael's Restaurant where this class took place. They plan on using their skills in a few weeks when they go on their senior trip to Washington, D.C.

All decked out in red for the egg hunt.

Tribune photo/Delores Rowland

Ravenna Mayor Estine Tipton and Jim Richardson, watched as children hunted eggs in the Veterans Memorial Park on Saturday. The egg hunt is held in memory of Richardson's late wife, who started the tradition.

Tribune photo/Delores Rowland

Yard Sale
Friday 10-3 at the American Legion
Rain or Shine!