Q. When Will Hillary Announce for 2016 ?

Maudie's Naughties

Seconds

Pa grabs his plate at the reunion and walks up to load it up for the fourth time.

"Aren't you embarrassed to go back for so many helpings?" asks Ma.

"Not a bit," Pa replies, "I keep telling them it's for you."

Bus Ride

A drunken man gets on the bus late one night, staggers up the aisle, and sits next to an elderly woman.

She looks the man up and down and says, "If you don't change your ways, I know where you're going."

The man jumps up out of his seat and shouts, "Oh, no. I'm on the bus to Hades and I'm sitting next to Satan's sister."

New Glasses

Ma goes to an eye doctor to have her eyes checked for glasses. The doctor directs her to read various letters with the left eye while covering the right eye.

Ma is so mixed up on which eye is which that the eye doctor in disgust takes a paper sack with a hole to see through, and puts it on her head to cover up the appropriate eye and asks her to read the letters.

As he does so, he notices Ma has tears streaming down her face. "Look," says the doctor, "There's no need to get upset about getting glasses."

"I know," says Ma, "But I kind of had my heart set on wire frames."

Ugly Faces

Finding one of her students making faces at others on the playground, Ms. Smith stops to gently correct the child.

Smiling sweetly, the teacher says, "When I was a child, I was told if I made ugly faces my face would freeze like that."

The student looks up and replies, "Well you can't say you weren't warned."

Bad Habit

Allison loves sucking her thumb. She is now five years old but hasn't stopped the bad habit. With an effort to stop her from this bad practice, Allison's mother tells her that her stomach will swell and will finally burst if she doesn't stop the habit. The little girl stops the habit immediately.

A month later, Mrs. Blecker, who is expecting her first child, pays them a visit. When Allison comes in to greet her she stops first to stare at Mrs. Blecker's tummy, then says without hesitation "We know what you've been doing, and you'd better stop it fast."

Want to Dance?

A guy goes up to this girl in a bar and says, "Would you like to dance?"

The girl says, "I don't like this song, but even if I did, I wouldn't dance with you."

The guy says, "I'm sorry, you must have misunderstood me, I said you look fat in those pants."

Late Night

Pa is leading a city cousin through the woods late one night. The cousin asks, "Is it true that a bear won't attack you if you carry a flashlight?"

"Well," says Pa. "Depends on how fast you carry it."

What's a Breathalyzer

"Shhaaayyy, buddy," asks Joe of a friend sitting on the next barstool. "What's a 'breathalyzer'?"

"Well, I'd have to say it's a bag that tells you when you've drunk way too much," answers the equally-wasted gent.

"Well, whaddya know?" says Joe, "I've been married to one of those for years!"

Permission to Wed

A young man says to his girlfriend's father, "I realize that this is only a formality . . . but would you mind me marrying your daughter?"

"Who says it's ONLY A FORMALITY?" asks the father angrily.

"Her obstetrician!" replies the young man.

Photog

A car is involved in an accident in a street. As expected a large crowd gathers. A newspaper reporter, anxious to get his story could not get near the car. Being a clever sort, he starts shouting loudly, "Let me through! Let me through! I am the son of the victim."

The crowd makes way for him. Lying in front of the car is a donkey.

Floodwaters Take One Life

Lee County Resident Drowns in Floodwaters of Big Sinking Creek

On Friday, April 3, 2015, just before 10:00 a.m., Lee County Dispatch was notified that a vehicle was swept off of HWY KY-52 near Old Landing Road, and travelled out of sight into Big Sinking Creek. Lee County first responders, including the Sheriff's Office, EMS, and the Fire & Rescue responded to the area and began searching for the vehicle.

The Kentucky State Police, Kentucky Fish & Wildlife, and Lexington Fire Department were contacted by Lee County authorities and responded to the scene to assist with the search. As the floodwaters receded, the vehicle was found submerged in the creek, just before 7:00 p.m. The vehicle was recovered and a female was found inside and pronounced deceased by the Lee County Coroner. No one else was located inside the vehicle and the initial investigation indicates that she was alone at the time of the event.

Living Green: Living an Environmentally Responsible Life Class

In today's society, "green" is used to describe everything from household cleaners to cars. It's the topic of talk shows, books, and political campaigns. But, what does "green" really mean? Simply put "green" is environmental responsibility. Making choices that are environmentally friendly.

We, as humans, are dependent on our Earth's natural resources. Everything from the air we breathe, to the water we drink, to the soil we use for food production - these resources are vital to our existence. Therefore, it's important that we care for and respect these resources. Understanding how our daily choices affect our environment is key. By making a few simple changes in our day-to-day routine we can conserve natural resources and protect our environment for present and future generations.

Estill County Cooperative Extension is offering a Living Green class on Earth Day, April 22nd at 6:00 p.m. at the Estill County Extension Office, 76 Golden Court. The class will provide information on ways to be more environmentally friendly or "green" by saving energy, conserving water, reducing waste, eating responsibly, and acting locally. For more information contact Chelsea Bicknell at 723-4557 or chelsea.bicknell@uky.edu.

Educational programs of the Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, sex, religion, disability or national origin.
