

Ms. Owens' Second Grade class created a canvas that will be on display at the annual Governor's Kentucky Derby picnic celebration in Frankfort, Kentucky.

Concrete Materials recently had one of their concrete mixers painted for Estill County High School. Honors Chemistry II seniors are standing in front.

Estill Lady Engineers' junior catcher Zoe Deaton got a base hit against Model on Thursday, April 23, and brought in an Estill run from third base. Estill won 5-2.

Estill freshman pitcher Kaylee Covey throws one in as junior Haley Bishop looks for a play from third.

Estill County High School sophomores Kayla McKinney and Abby Winkle attended a leadership conference earlier this month in Berea as part of their participation in the highly-selective Promise Appalachian Leaders (PAL) program. See full story on Page 14. (Photo courtesy of Lauren T. Rader)

(Photo courtesy of Kelli Sparks)

In honor of Earth Day, the Girl Scout Troop #7181 visited Irvine Nursing and Rehabilitation Center to plant flowers with residents. Those residents pictured are Ella Chapman (light yellow shirt) and Joanie Riddell (holding flowers).

(Photo courtesy of Anisha Fletcher)

On Sunday, April 26th, the Estill County 8U baseball team won the championship at the 2015 Stanton Soggy Bottom Tournament in Powell County. Pictured left to right, front: Hayden Fletcher, Taygen Walters, Logan Friend, Berkley Hardy, Casey Chaney. Standing: Rylan Brown, Ashton Rose, Tray Brooks, Peyton Riddell and Chase Woolery. The team is coached by Shawn Chaney with Mike Hardy, Steven Fletcher, Bill Friend and Jeremy Woolery (not pictured) assisting. Also not pictured is Jax Niece and Jayce Mills. These boys played extremely hard and represented Estill County well! Congratulations boys!

APRIL
30

JARROD POLSON BOOK SIGNING!

Irvine Health Mart Pharmacy

Thursday, April 30 from 4-6 p.m

905 Richmond Rd, Irvine, KY 40336

Come by and pick up a signed copy of Living Beyond the Dream and try on the 2012 National Championship Ring!