

The 25th Mountain Mushroom Festival

Darrell Ashley of Ravenna exhibited watercolor paintings at the festival.

Jerry Flynn stirred and stirred popcorn at the festival. It was a hot job.

District Judge William "Bo" Leach presented a certificate last Wednesday to Heaven Lainhart, a student at Estill County High School and winner of the Estill County Bar Association's essay contest, "Trial by Jury." Jenny Haymond, not pictured, presented Heaven with a Nexus 7 tablet on behalf of the local bar association. Zach Barnett, a teacher at the high school, was unable to be present, but was also recognized by the bar association. Law Day will be observed on May 1.

Boy Scout Troop 89 opened the parade with flags.

Children dressed in old fashioned clothing for the River City Players float.

Morel mushrooms could be found at the festival. Above is the mushroom mascot. Below are mushroom pins made by Gene Abney

Kyra was crowned "Miss MountainMushroomFestival 2015 Ultimate Grand Supreme Queen" at the 25th annual Mountain Mushroom pageant. She received the title for having the highest overall score from all age divisions. Kyra is the 10 year old daughter of Jimmy and April Farthing, and is a fifth grader at West Irvine Elementary.
