Mom of the Year

Maudie's Naughties

Life Saver

A wealthy businessman chokes on a fish bone at a restaurant.

He is fortunate that a doctor is seated at a nearby table. Springing up, the doctor skillfully removes the bone and saves the man's life.

As soon as the fellow has calmed himself and can talk again, he thanks the surgeon enthusiastically and offers to pay him for his services.

"Just name the fee," he croaks gratefully.

"Okay," replies the doctor. "How about half of what you'd have offered when the bone was still stuck in your throat?"

Anniversary

A young man is speeding home after being delayed at the office when he suddenly sees flashing lights in his rearview mirror. After the officer pulls him over, the young man is hoping for some leniency and explains to the officer that he was rushing home to be with his wife because it is their first anniversary.

Rather than letting the man off with a warning, the officer continues writing, tears off the ticket and hands it to the man and says, "Congratulations, the first anniversary is paper, isn't it?"

Affairs

An artist, a lawyer, and a computer scientist are discussing the merits of a mistress. The artist tells of the passion, the thrill which comes with the risk of being discovered.

The lawyer warns of the difficulties. It can lead to guilt, divorce, bankruptcy. Not worth it. Too many problems.

The computer scientist says "It's the best thing that's ever happened to me. My wife thinks I'm with my mistress. My mistress thinks I'm home with my wife, and I can spend all night on the computer!"

Correct Diagnosis

An archaeologist is digging in the Negev Desert in Israel and comes upon a casket containing a mummy. After examining it, he calls the curator of a prestigious natural-history museum.

"I've just discovered a 3,000 year-old mummy of a man who died of heart failure!" the excited scientist exclaims.

To which the curator replies, "Bring him in. We'll check it out." A week later, the amazed curator calls the archaeologist. "You were right about the mummy's age and cause of death. How in the world did you know?"

"Easy. There was a piece of paper in his hand that said, '10,000 Shekels on Goliath.'"

Marital Predictions

"Pa," says Little Julie. "Did you know what your marriage would be like before you married Ma?"

"Well," answers Pa. "I knew before the ceremony was over with."

"How's that," asks Julie?

"Well," says Pa. "The minister asks Ma, 'Do you take this man to be your husband?' . . . and Ma replies, 'I do!'"

"Then he turns to me and says, 'Do you take this woman to be your wife?' . . . and Ma leans over and says, 'He does!'"

More Marital Predictions

"Pa," says Little Julie. "How come Uncle Bill never got married? Was it because of his crooked nose?"

"Oh, he almost did get married," replies Pa. "You know that woman named Bernadette that lives at the head of the hollow, Bill was all set to marry her. The wedding was all planned and Bernadette was waiting at the alter with Reverend Rick from the Methodist Church. Bill came strolling up the aisle pushing a new set of golf clubs that he had bought himself for Christmas. Bernadette looks straight at him and says, 'What did you bring those for?' Bill looks back at her right straight in the eye and says, 'Well, this ain't going to take all day, is it?' I believe it was the 8-iron that broke his nose."

Weight Watchers

Mrs. Jones, who is a little on the chubby side, has been attending weight-watchers meetings but has missed a couple. She encounters a classmate on the street who inquires as to where she has been.

"Well," she says. "My husband was the one who insisted I come to those meetings because he would rather be romantic with a woman with a trim figure."

"Well," the lady replies, "What's wrong with that?"

"He was visiting her while I was at the meetings."

Letter To The Editor

Time To Celebrate National Hospital Week

Hospitals are central to a healthy & optimistic community

Dear Editor:

A hospital is more than a place where people go to heal, it is a part of the community that fosters help and represents hope. From providing treatment and comforting the sick to improving access to quality healthcare, hospitals are central to a healthy and optimistic community.

National Hospital Week is a time to celebrate the 200 people employed by Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital. We are extremely proud of each member of our team – at the hospital campus and our primary care clinics in Beattyville, Clay City, and Irvine. We recognize the important role they play in extending a sense of trust to our patients and our communities. These men and women support the health of the community through dedication and compassionate care.

We would like to take this year's National Hospital Week as an opportunity to thank the dedicated individuals – providers, employees, board members, volunteers, and many more - for their contributions. We would also like to thank you for choosing Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital for your healthcare needs; because with your support, we can fulfill our mission of creating a stronger, healthier community.

Sincerely, Susan Starling,
President & CEO,
Marcum & Wallace
Memorial Hospital
