I'm Just Foolish Enough

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

The New Testament is the book that all modern day Christians must look forward to, to gain the needed information that can, and will lead us to Heaven if we will do what it says. Jesus says in Luke 6:46, "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" Now, if this were the only verse concerning the simplicity of the statement, am I free to disregard it? Or, should I say, "This is the only time it is said, and pay it no heed?" I ask, does this statement made by Jesus coincide, or agree with other verses?

In 2 Corinthians 11:3, here Paul says to the Corinthians that he was afraid "... your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." Solomon says in Proverbs 14:15, "The simple believeth every word..." Now, I for one consider myself to be a simple man in nearly all things, so, I have to listen closely and study more carefully the things that are taught from the Bible, so I won't be among those who have been deceived by good words and fair speeches that Paul warns us all to be careful, lest our simple hearts be deceived. (Romans 16: 18.)

I think all of us, with the exception of small children, know that a practicing magician is using his knowledge of trickery to deceive his audiences. This is how he makes his living. I am all too afraid that we have a great number of these men in the field of modern day religion. They in their trickery will attempt to make plain and simple scriptures disappear before your very eyes. For instance, on of the first and simple passages in the New Testament is found in Acts, chapter 2. Here those Jews who had been informed of the murder of their looked-for Messiah, Jesus, they had crucified and slain. This day the Holy Spirit was working with the words they preached, and doing so, they were convicted of their sin. Because of this they cried out in anguish, "Men and brethren what shall we do then?" (Verse 37) Peter the inspired apostle said, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name (authority) of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." (Verse 38). How plain and simple! But, here comes along a silver tongue religious magician and makes the simple facts of this verse disappear right before your very eyes. Then, like Eve in Genesis 3, he changes not all the important facts by saying, "Baptism is good, it ought to be done, but know this, "Your sins were forgiven before you were baptized!" So, many listen to the magician and in so doing never obey the command "for the remission of sins." So, off they go in deception, thinking that they are accepted of Christ, never having the proper introduction into his Kingdom. You may think this is foolishness, so, before you judge me as a fool, I encourage you to read Matthew 7:21-23, because eternal death will be mostly filled with deceived people. You do not have to be one of them. We hope you will read the Bible and simply do what it says.

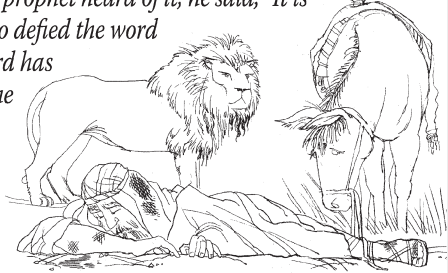

Visit with us at 70 Bond Street, West Irvine. We can be reached at any time, 1-859-369-4165.

Sincerely, Bob Casey

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

When the man of God went on his way, a lion killed him, and his body was left lying with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it. When the prophet heard of it, he said, "It is the man of God who defied the word of the Lord. The Lord has given him over to the lion, as the Lord had warned him."
