Waiting is a regular part of our lives. As children, we wait to grow up. We wait for Santa, for birthdays, for grades to be reported and trouble to begin, for a driver's license. As adults, we wait for other things: a job, a pay day, a child, a soulmate, a house, a change...

Waiting can be difficult. We are ing. not in control, and often cannot bring about the thing we desire most. The mind can go crazy as we wait. We become frustrated, then We must blame someone! When there's no one else, we blame God Him. He must be away rescuing everyone else, taking care of evus, we might think.

In many ways, the Christmas spreading of the gospel.) story is about waiting. It does not begin when Jesus was born. It be- God was working.
