

American Legion members posed for a photograph at the Estill County Fairbarn on Saturday before handing out gifts to adults during "Toys for Estill County Kids." Parents and guardians were asked to pick up toys for their children. They were given wrapping paper and bows to wrap up the gifts, along with fruit and candy.

Amelia and Carter Ratliff from Irvine were each given a gently used bicycle Saturday at the River City Arts and Music Center. The center received 29 used bikes to give away. Repairs were made to 21 of the bikes. Many small children were turned away because the bikes were too large for them. The event was considered a success, and Jennifer Richardson said they are making plans for next year.
