Maudie's Naughties

Remember To Be A Good Sport

During the course of a heated softball tournament, the coach feels the need to remind one of her players about the importance of team play and good sportsmanship. The coach asks the player if she knows and remembers what good sportsmanship is. The player replies, yes. The coach then asks her if she knows she shouldn't curse at the umpire or throw things in anger. The player again replies, yes. "Good," says the coach, "Now run over to the stands and tell your father."

An Umpire's View

During district tournaments, the umpire is being jeered and heckled unmercifully from the crowd. After a while, he walks out the gate and sits down next to his chief critic.

"What are you doing?" asks the spectator.

Well," says the umpire, "It seems you have the best view."

Softball Challenge

The devil challenges St. Peter to a softball game.

"How can you win, Satan?" asks St. Peter. "All the best players are up here."

"How can I lose?" answers Satan. "Most of the umpires are down here."

Symptoms Of Too Much Softball

Your diet consists of sunflower seeds and sports drinks.

Your favorite color is softball yellow.

When you see the shadow of a bird, you yell, "Ball, Ball, Ball!"

You have a stripe tan on the back of your legs from knee pads.

You attend the church you've been going to all your life and they ask you to fill out a visitor form.

A Softball Player's View Of Umpires

A group of men are standing around the edge of the field and a softball player walks up and says, "Hey, do you want to hear a good joke about softball umpires?"

One of the men replies, "Be careful what you say, all five of us are umpires."

"Well, forget it then," says the player. "I don't have time to explain the joke five times!"

Just To Be Fair -- An Umpire's View of Softball

How many softball players does it take to screw in a light bulb?

Impossible! They're too busy whining about the last call.

What is the difference between a softball player and a puppy?

A puppy will eventually stop whining!

The Yellow Ball Rule

If a girl has to choose between catching a fly ball and watching a cute guy in the stands, she'll always choose the cute guy without even considering if there are runners on base.

A Softball Player -- What It Means

You know you're a softball junkie if... you think dressing up means getting a clean softball tournament shirt.

Help To Win

On the last day of the tournament, the coach is talking to one of her players before the game. "Look, here is $100," she says. "Go out and buy some new balls or something... anything that will help us win." The game begins and the coach notices that the same old balls are being used. She calls her player over and asks "What did you do with the 100 bucks I gave you?"

The player replies, "Well, you said anything to help us win, so, I gave it to the umpire."

Loss of Control

A rookie pitcher is struggling at the mound, so the catcher walks up to have a talk with her. "I've figured out your problem," she tells the young south-paw. "You always lose control at the same point in every game."

"When is that?"

"Right after the National Anthem."

The New Normal...

Virtual Reading Began June 1
