Maudie's Naughties

May I Speak To Your Mother?

A telemarketer telephones a household, and a four-year-old answers. Telemarketer: May I speak to your mother?

Child: She's in the bathtub.

Telemarketer: Well, is anyone else there?

Child: My sister

Telemarketer: O.K., fine. May I speak to her?

Child: I guess so.

There is a long silence on the other phone. Then;

Child: Hello?

Telemarketer: I thought you were going to call your sister.

Child: I can't get her out of the playpen.

Feeling Guilty About Taxes

A man wrote a letter to the IRS: "I have been unable to sleep knowing that I have cheated on my income tax. I understated my taxable income and have enclosed a check for $200.00. If I still can't sleep, I will send the rest."

Learning Harmonica

A soldier stationed in the Germany writes to his wife back in the States to please send him a harmonica to occupy his free time and keep his mind off of the local women. The wife complies and sends the best one she can find, along with several dozen lesson and music books.

Rotated back home, he rushes to their home and through the front door. "Oh darling" he gushes, "Let's have a fine dinner out, then snuggle all night. I've missed you so much!"

"All in good time, lover," says the wife, keeping her distance. "First, let's hear you play that harmonica."

She's Not For Sale

While Ma and Pa are at the Peddlers Mall, a wealthy middle-eastern man approaches Pa, saying, "I'll give you 100 camels for your woman."

After a long silence, Pa says, "She's not for sale."

Ma seems a little puzzled and says, "What took you so long to answer?"

"I was trying to figure out what use I'd have for 100 camels."

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

A woman is extremely busy before Christmas, so she decides to get her husband to help address their Christmas cards. She arranges everything they will need, pulls up two chairs and calls her husband to help.

He walks in, sees the assortment of cards, envelopes, stamps and lists; then, then he scoops everything up, to his wife's amazement and walks into another room. In a few minutes, he returns with a high stack of cards; stamped, sealed and addressed. "They're last year's," he says. "I forgot to mail them!"

Hit And Run

A man runs into a friend and sees that his friend's car is total loss and covered with leaves . . . grass, branches, dirt and blood. He asks his friend, "What's happened to your car?"

The friend responds, "I ran over a politician."

"Well," says the man, "But what about the leaves, the grass, the branches and the dirt?"

"I had to chase him all through the park."

Family Values

Two guys are discussing popular family trends on sex, marriage, and values. Stu says, "I didn't sleep with my wife before we got married, did you?"

Leroy replies, "I'm not sure, What was her maiden name?"

Tight Pants

This guy has been sitting in a bar all night, staring at a blonde wearing the tightest pants he's ever seen. Finally his curiosity gets the best of him, so he walks over and asks, "How do you get into those pants?"

The young woman looks him over and replies, "Well, you could start by buying me a drink."

Mercy Health – Marcum and Wallace Hospital Updates Hospital Visitor Policy

While continuing to ensure patient safety and well-being, Mercy Health – Marcum and Wallace Hospital has updated its visitor restrictions put in place in response to COVID-19.

No visitors are allowed for patients diagnosed with or suspected of having COVID-19 (exception is made in instances of end of life). For all other patients, the following policies apply to visitors to the hospital:

- One visitor each day will be allowed for each admitted patient on the medical unit. The visitor is allowed between the hours of 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. A visitor may not leave the hospital campus and return that same day.
- A visitor will be required to remain in a patient's room even when the patient is not present.
- Procedural patients may have one visitor for post-procedure consultations with the medical provider.
- No visitors will be allowed to accompany patients in the ER or in outpatient areas such as lab, radiology, etc. The only exceptions are in cases of end-of-life, life-changing diagnoses, or if the visitor is needed for assistance with care or communication. Pediatric patients in these areas are allowed one parent/guardian.
- No visitors with signs or symptoms of illness will be permitted and all visitors must pass a temperature check and screening to be allowed entry to the hospital.

- All visitors must wear a mask at all times within the hospital (including while in a patient room.) The only exception is when eating and drinking.

Mercy Health – Marcum and Wallace Hospital recommends that anyone at high risk for severe illness, such as older adults or those with serious underlying conditions, not visit at this time.

Stickeler's Puzzle

STICKELERS (sic)
by Terry Stickels

There are five Leeps in a Grat, seven Grats in a Bliz and three Blizzes in a Zank.

What is the number of Leeps in a Zank divided by the number of Grats in a Zank?

Letter to the Editor

Wake Up America

Dear Editor,

I am an occasional Harry Potter fan. I was thrilled by the photo on the front page of today's newspaper. HAGRID is alive and well and living in Estill County. I hope he remembers to send the occasional owl to Professor Dumbledore.

I was surprised that 200 people (it seemed a lot less in the photo) gathered for BLM. I was always taught that ALL LIVES MATTER. For the uninformed who get their news from CNN/MSNBC or other fake news sources, here are a few facts. According to the gov't, several universities and the Washington Post -- in 2015 (under The Great Obama), 38 unarmed blacks were killed by police. In 2019, 9 unarmed blacks were killed by police (all deemed righteous) -- 19 unarmed white people were killed by police. Nearly 8,000 black people were killed by other blacks!

As horrible as George Floyd's death seems, can any one of the courthouse demonstrators name a policeman killed by rioters? How about one of the 18 blacks shot in Chicago on Sunday, or one of the 90+ injured -- a weekly occurrence in the Windy City.

Have you considered that the violent demonstrations and riots have all occurred in states and cities controlled by the historically racist and pro-slavery democrat party, often with black governors, mayors or councilmen. The national Dems have promised black betterment for almost 100 years and have not delivered -- except for an occasional free "Obama phone" or other goodie to buy a vote. The Dems have higher priorities than the black minority. For example: unlimited illegal immigration (that takes jobs from blacks), gays and transgenders; Peach '45, green New Deal, common core, climate change, and funding Planned Parenthood (which aborts 40% of black babies) -- To name a few. As a famous comedian says, "WAKE UP AMERICA."

Sincerely, Charles F. Peek
