Gift of Freedom

Freedom is a very precious gift. Its value far exceeds that of gold and diamonds in the world. It is especially priceless for the Christian who has been promised freedom from death for all eternity.

The importance of being free is mentioned many times in the Holy Bible. Especially the freedom that comes from being in Christ. This liberates us from a large number of religious rules, ceremonies, and restrictions that were part of the Law in the Old Testament.

By living under Grace, Christians can enjoy all the benefits of freedom made possible by Jesus on the cross. There are over 25 references to being free in the New Testament. The result is that Christians can escape fears of death, hell, slavery to sin, legalism, and lacking necessary physical items for daily life. This is a great enhancement for the quality of life here on Earth. Especially when it is added to numerous freedoms that citizens of a free society already enjoy.

In general, they refer to freedoms of speech, religion, publications, voting, and peaceful assembly. In particular, they include a large number of free choices that involve: 1) choosing an occupation and the related schooling and training needed; 2) choosing a place to live and the type of residence; 3) choosing our mode of travel and destinations we want; 4) choosing the type and amount of our social associations; 5) choosing our artistic expressions of painting, writing, audio and video; and 6) choosing our individual lifestyles of eating, drinking, sleeping, clothing, entertainment, and relationships. No wonder freedom is so awesome!

Thank you, Jesus, for the magnificent gift of freedom.

MOM

I wish I could just say, "Hi," to you; Way up there on Heaven's shore. Or tell you and Dad how I love you; Each day down here I love you more.

If I could just reach out and touch you, Or look on your smiling face; And thank you for the things you did for me, That never can be replaced.

So many things you have done for me, When I was there at home. You were such a help with all my problems; Never leaving me alone.

You were always such a Precious Mother, Standing close by me in times of need. I know this wasn't easy, With so many mouths to feed.

We were always such a close family, That's why we miss you now so much. For your hand was always there to guide us, When the "way of life," became so rough.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree")...

...that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

God, who made the world and everything in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands. Nor is He worshiped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives to all life, breath, and all things.

ACTS 17: 24, 25
