Maudie's Naughties

Main Street Brawl

A young boy comes running into city hall looking for a policeman. Finding one, he pleads, "Officer, my dad and another man got into a fight at the post office, can you help break it up?"

After rushing up the street, sure enough, two men are fighting in front of the post office.

"Which one's your dad," asks the officer.

"I don't know," says the boy. "That's what they're fighting about."

Traffic Stop

Trixie is hired as a traffic officer. On her first traffic stop she pulls over her friend Barbie who is speeding in a 35 mile an hour zone. Trixie walks up to her car and asks Barbie for her driver's license.

Barbie searches frantically through her purse and finally asks, "What does it look like?"

Irritated, Trixie says, "It's got your picture on it."

Barbie digs around in her purse and finds a small rectangular mirror. She holds it up and sees her faces and says, "Aha, this must be it," and hands it to Trixie.

"Yeah, that's it," says Trixie, looking into the mirror. "But I didn't know you were a cop, too."

One Way

Ma and Pa are in town on the first of the month and Pa turns left onto Sycamore Street and turns left in the wrong direction onto Broadway. "Uh-oh," says Pa. I just made an illegal turn.

"That's alright," says Ma. "That police car behind us did the same thing."

Speeder

A police officer pulls a man over for speeding. As the officer approaches the car he can see that the man is very anxious about something.

"Good afternoon Sir. Do you know why I stopped you?"

"Yes, officer . . . I know I was speeding . . . but it's a matter of life or death."

"Oh, really? How's that?"

"There's a naked woman waiting for me at home."

"I don't see how could be a matter of life or death."

"If I don't get home before my wife does," replies the speeder, "I'm a dead man."

Dog Problem

There's a big problem with stray dogs lately in Needmore Holler, so all the law enforcement officers are asked to be on the lookout for dogs without a license.

Junior comes rolling up the holler in Pa's old beat up pickup, and a new trooper decides to stop him.

"What's the problem, Mr. Officer," asks Junior?

The police officer points at Ole Blue (Junior's hunting dog) who is setting on a seat beside Junior and says, "Does that dog have a license?"

"He don't need one," replies Junior. "I do all the driving."

Canaries

Ma tells everyone she wants two yellow canaries for Christmas. Junior draws her name, so on Christmas day he is showing Pa what he has in the cage for Ma's present. When Pa looks into the cage, Junior has two pale green parakeets.

Pa says, "Son, I thought Ma said she wanted two yellow canaries for Christmas."

"She did," replies Junior. "The lady I bought them from at the flea market said these weren't quite ripe yet."

Barking Dog

Junior is awakened one morning at 4 a.m. by his telephone ringing. "Your dog's barking, and it's keeping me awake," says an irate voice.

Junior finds Ole Blue sound asleep at the foot of the bed so he thanks the caller and politely asks his name before hanging up.

The next morning at 4 a.m., Junior calls back his neighbor and says, "Sir . . . it wasn't my dog."

September 4th, 2020

Dear Kiwanis supporters,

The members of the Kiwanis Club want to thank everyone who has given their time, money and articles to be sold at our annual Kiwanis Radio/TV Auction. Without the help of the entire community it would not have been able to help support so many organizations over the last sixteen years. We appreciate your donations of time, effort, money and items to be auctioned, as well as those who have been so generous in the purchases you have made. It has been an honor and a blessing to have the support of so many people and we are truly thankful for all you have done.

We want to let you know that, due to the Coronavirus we will not be having the Radio/TV Auction this year. We hope that a vaccine is found soon and we look forward to working with all of you in next year's Irvine/Ravenna Kiwanis Auction on October 2nd, 2001.
