Maudie's Naughties

Cousin Wilferd in California on Gas Prices

"Aunt Maudie, the price of fuel is so high out here, I went into a station this morning and asked for five dollars worth. The clerk passed gas and gave me a receipt."

Hearing Test

A man in a mental hospital sits with his ear to the wall and listens, all day long. Different doctors watch him do this day after day. Finally one doctor decides he's going to find out what the guy is listening to. So, he puts his ear up to the wall and listens. He hears nothing. He turns to the patient and says, "I don't hear anything."

"Yeah, I know," says the guy. "It's been like that for months!"

Is That Your Final Answer?

A husband and wife are in bed watching "Who Wants to be a Millionaire." The husband asks for sex. The wife says, "No."

Her husband asks, "Is that your final answer?"

She responds, "Yes."

He says, "Then, I'd like to call a friend."

Screams From The Bathroom

A drunk gets up from the bar and heads for the bathroom. A few minutes later, a loud, blood curdling scream is heard from the bathroom. A few minutes after that, another loud scream reverberates through the bar. The bartender goes into the bathroom to investigate why the drunk is screaming. "What's all the screaming about in there? You're scaring the customers!"

"I'm just sitting here on the toilet and every time I try to flush, something comes up and bites me really hard."

With that, the bartender opens the door, looks in and says, "You idiot! You're sitting on the mop bucket!"

New Hunting Dog

Junior and Howard are at the dog pound looking for a hunting dog for Howard.

Junior points at one cage and says, "Howard, look at that dog with one eye!"

Howard covers one of his eyes and says, "Where?"

Three Pieces of Pie

With all the sadness and trauma going on in the world at the moment, it is worth reflecting on the anniversary of the death of a very important person which went almost un-noticed in early April.

Larry La Prise, the man who wrote "Do The Hokey Pokey," died peacefully April 4, 1996 at the age of 83.

The most traumatic part for his family was getting him in the coffin.

They put his left leg in . . . and things just started to go wrong from there!

Management Lesson

A little bird is flying south for the winter. It is so cold, the bird freezes and falls to the ground in a large field.

While it lying there, a cow comes by and drops some dung on it.

As the frozen bird lays there in the pile of cow dung, it begins to realize how warm it is. The dung is actually thawing him out! He lays there all warm and happy and soon begins to sing for joy. A passing cat hears the bird singing and comes to investigate.

Following the sound, the cat discovers the bird under the pile of cow dung and promptly digs him out and eats him!

What's Important:

- 1) Not everyone who drops crap on you is your enemy.
- 2) Not everyone who gets you out of crap is your friend.
- 3) And when you're in deep crap, keep your mouth shut.

Split Wide Open

The graveside service for Great Aunt Granelda had just ended when a tremendous burst of thunder is accompanied by a distant lightning bolt and more rumbling thunder.

One of her nephews looks at the pastor and calmly says, "Well, she's there."

Estill, Lee, and Powell among primary counties

Biden Approves Kentucky Disaster Declaration

Friday, April 23, 2021, President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. declared that a major disaster exists in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and ordered Federal assistance to supplement commonwealth and local recovery efforts in the areas affected by severe storms, flooding, landslides, and mudslides from February 27 to March 14, 2021.

The President's action makes Federal funding available to affected individuals in the counties of Breathitt, Clay, Estill, Floyd, Johnson, Lee, Magoffin, Martin, and Powell.

Assistance can include grants for temporary housing and home repairs, low-cost loans to cover uninsured property losses, and other programs to help individuals and business owners recover from the effects of the disaster.

Federal funding is also available to commonwealth and eligible local governments and certain private nonprofit organizations on a cost-sharing basis for emergency work and the repair or replacement of facilities damaged by the severe storms, flooding, landslides, and mudslides in the counties of Boyd, Breathitt, Carter, Casey, Cumberland, Elliott, Floyd, Franklin, Jackson, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Lawrence, Lee, Lincoln, Magoffin, Marion, Martin, Mason, Morgan, Ohio, Pike, Powell, Rockcastle, and Wolfe.

Lastly, Federal funding is available on a cost-sharing basis for hazard mitigation measures for the entire commonwealth.

Robert J. Fenton, Senior Official Performing the Duties of the Administrator, Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), Department of Homeland Security, named John Brogan as the Federal Coordinating Officer for Federal recovery operations in the affected areas.

Additional designations may be made at a later date if requested by the commonwealth and warranted by the results of further damage assessments.

Residents and business owners who sustained losses in the designated counties can begin applying for assistance by registering online at <http://www.DisasterAssistance.gov> or by calling 1-800-621-FEMA(3362) or 1-800-462-7585 (TTY) for the hearing and speech impaired. The toll-free telephone numbers will operate from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. (local time) seven days a week until further notice.

Hospital plans Healthy Summer Virtual Event

Mercy Health - Marcum and Wallace Hospital will sponsor a virtual educational event for parents and caregivers titled, "Nourishing Advice for a Healthy Summer" on Wednesday, May 5th at 12 p.m. via Zoom.

Marcum and Wallace Hospital Nutrition Services Manager Billie J. Rogers MS, RD, LD, CDCES, and Marcum and Wallace Hospital Physical Therapy Director Kevin Ochs, PT, will have a conversation centered around keeping your family safe and healthy this summer.

"Summer time is family time," said Billie. "Kevin and I want to share some suggestions on how to promote healthy families this summer. We will share ideas on recipes for summer meals and snacks and also how to get the family moving together!"

Please call 606-726-8185 to register for this free event and receive your Zoom invitation/virtual event information. The deadline to register is May 4th.
