To Our Friends and Family in the Community,

We wish to offer our sincere thanks and gratitude for the love, support, and compassion shown to us during the sickness and passing our loved one, Fred Brown.

Two months ago, it would have seemed a certainty that we wouldn't be writing this letter at this time. However, life isn't certain and the only precaution we can take is to be spiritually prepared in the event our time comes to leave this world. Our loved one had made this preparation.

We first want to thank the doctors, nurses and all the staff at the Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital. Large hospitals may have more resources but in the compassion, quality of care and the patience shown as they cared for our husband, dad and papa, they couldn't have been better. We are truly grateful to and proud of our small town hospital.

When God decided to call our loved one to a much greater purpose in a far greater place, Jason and the Lewis Funeral Home couldn't have been better. No detail of the planning of the services and the burial were too large or small. It is never pleasant to need the services of a funeral home, but Lewis Funeral Home made these days as comfortable and bearable as possible, and for that we are grateful.

We want to thank Bro. Greg McClellan, Bro. Dennis Williams, Bro. Bill Elliot and the Wisemantown Methodist Church and the Pine Hill Baptist Church for the limitless prayers, visits and support during our time of need. A very special thank you to the Wisemantown congregation for the Bereavement Meal following the funeral services. We thank Bro. McClellan for the touching words spoken and Tom Bonny, Harold Brandenburg, Don Williams, Shelia Collins and Kaylee Collins for the beautiful singing at the funeral service.

Finally, we want to thank all of our special friends and loved ones in the community whether you offered a kind word, Facebook comment, call, text, a hug or most importantly a prayer. Each show of love and support has truly been appreciated from the bottom of our hearts! To all those who attended the visitation or funeral service, thank you for taking the time to offer your words of encouragement. In the past, we have seen how our community can show love and support to those in need. In our time of need, we truly felt that love and support and we are eternally grateful!

Sincerely,

Family of Fred M. Brown
