

Irvine firefighter Chad Neal climbed to the bucket of Irvines' aerial truck on Saturday before the prayer service on Saturday evening to take a photo of the crowd. Chief Tony Murphy said the area was checked for wires before allowing Chad to get in the bucket.

A state trooper (in gray uniform) joined local police officers during a prayer service for emergency personnel on Saturday night at the courthouse. Deputy sheriffs, constables, EMTs, dispatchers, and firefighters were all present. The event was organized after the death of Richmond Officer Daniel Ellis. One officer had attended police training with Ellis, and they commented on how much the Richmond Police Department has helped them. RPD donated cruisers to both the Irvine and Ravenna police departments when they purchased new ones a few years ago.

West Irvine Intermediate Activities

West Irvine Intermediate participated in Red Ribbon Week October 26 – 30. Attached is the flyer that explained each daily student-related activity. Students also had the opportunity to watch Jim "Basketball" Jones. Jim presented his assembly "Stay in the Game (Positive Life Choices)."
