Kiwanis Presents Farm/City Awards To Arvin, Click & Honchell

The Irvine-Ravenna Kiwanis Club presented its Farm/City Awards to a merchant and two farmers during their annual banquet held Thursday, November 19, 2015 at Michael's Restaurant in Ravenna.

Donna Isfort introduced her father, Donnie Arvin, and told how hard he and his family had worked on the farm for many years. They farmed on Crooked Creek and several family members live nearby each other there.

Blain Click introduced his father, former educator and long-time farmer Danny Click. He told about the dedication of his father to the farm as well as to his job as principal and others in education.

Richard Snowden introduced Larry Honchell and his wife Barsha. Snowden told of the devotion of the Honchell's over the years to their business, Honchell's Mens and Boys Clothing, and to its customers.

Kiwanis annually awards worthy business leaders and farmers in Estill County at its Farm/City Awards Banquet.
