seeds of Hope

God, who is richer than the richest and stronger than the strongest and the greatest friend we can have, says to each of us, "Call me when you are facing troubles and need help. I'm always available." Is that not exciting? If you are facing a difficult problem as you are reading this "Seed" you can put it aside - right now - and He's waiting for You to call on Him in prayer. Not only is He available, but He gives us the assurance that He will deliver us. What good is His availability if He is too powerless to protect us, too weak to fight for us, too poor to meet our needs? Whatever trouble we are facing - large or small, ours or someone we love - He guarantees a timely, effective and positive solution. He will deliver us when we call! But He does make one simple request of us: "You will honor me." The goal of our prayer must not be to bring attention to ourselves for what He has done and will do for us; it must always be to bring honor to His name!
