

We Unto Them That Call Evil Good

Linnville Dunaway, Corinth Christian Church

Isaiah 5:20-23, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!"

I know that a long time has passed since Isaiah wrote these words from God. A lot of people have decided that the Old Testament, and even the whole bible, is now irrelevant in today's world. All we have to do is to look at our country and the rest of the world to see the changes that such an attitude has made.

Yes, things have changed and not for the better. Morals have certainly lowered, not only in our country, but in the world. People live together as though they were married, playing house with out ever becoming husband and wife. Marriage is mocked as being unnecessary and old fashioned. Maybe this is done so they can change partners without going through a divorce. Any way you look at it, God still calls it sin.

Another result if the lack of morals is the children without a father in their lives. A lot don't even know who their real father is. I know of one case where several men were DNA tested and none of them was the father of the child in question. Then there are the abortions that kill millions of babies. Free choice? Yes, sin is a choice and many think that they can make a choice to kill the helpless and not face the consequences. Are they in for a big surprise when they stand before God! The Lord talked many times in the scriptures of those who shed innocent blood.

Divorce is common among couples of all age groups. Even among Christians the rate is surprisingly high. Those that divorce tell themselves that it is no big deal, but to do so is to disregard the word of God. The Lord doesn't accept the excuses that people make up for ignoring his commands. Mark 10:6, "But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female." For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; <sup>8</sup> And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup> What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Ignore God's Word at your own peril."

Those who stand for the Word of God at often mocked and scorned. People all through history have hated those who dared to say that a thing is sinful. Most people want to do what they want and not hear any word against it. That is why Christians are being accused of "Hate Speech" when they say that something is sinful. We are trying to warn the lost before they step into eternity and face God in a lost condition. Those who do sinful things are often presented as being liberal and daring for their acts. Those who change from a man to a woman, or a woman trying to becoming a man; they are not heroes, but a poor misguided sinner in need of the Lord.

Call a Christian an evil person and he is still saved in the eyes of God. On the other hand, call a sinner a saint and he is still lost in the eyes of God. Here on earth the multitude of men may sound like they win, but on the day of judgment a holy God will condemn sin and those who lived in it, though he be a dictator, king, or even a president.
