

The youth from Bethel Christian Church had a nativity scene on their float during Saturday's parade.

Jackie Dial and his grandson, Matthew Wright, passed out gloves and hats, donated by Ravenna Dollar General, to those waiting for the parade.

Irvine Officer John Sturniolo drove his canine unit slowly through the parade Saturday. He stopped every few feet to allow children to pet IPD's Fritz.

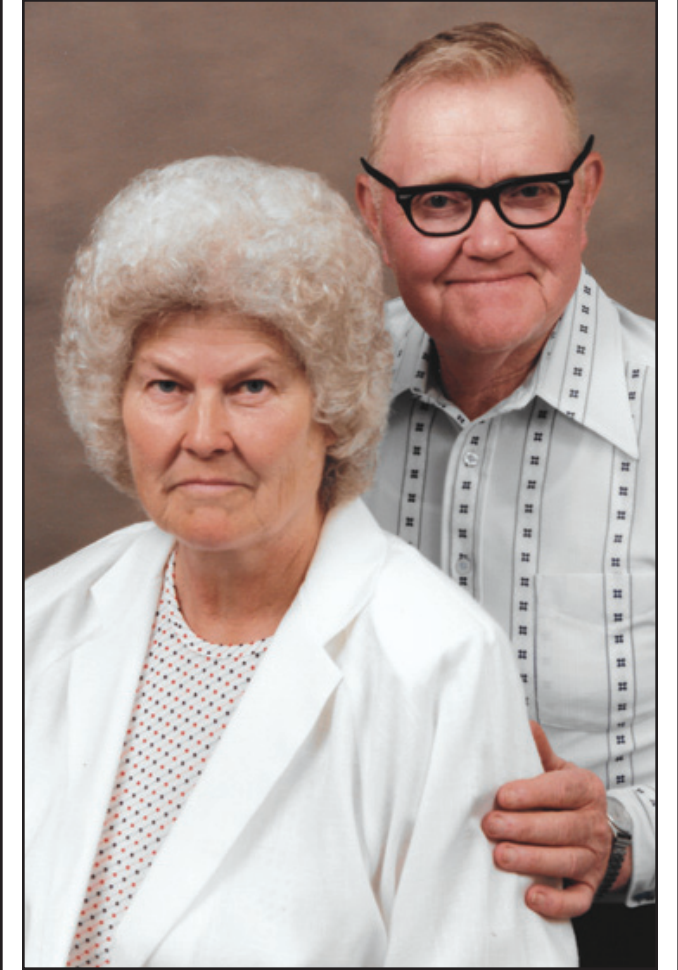

While waiting on the parade to come and the Elizabeth Witt Christmas party to begin, Cyndi Jones sat on the ledge of the sign at the Christian Church while holding Lauren White.

Phillip Sparks with the Hillbilly Flywheelers brought his oil well for children at the Witt Christmas party to see how it worked. They noticed his American flag on top.
