

Ladies Night for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Marcum & Wallace County High School cafeteria. This free event will feature a presentation by Kentucky Cancer Link Executive Director Vicki Blevins-Booth and Marcum & Wallace Hospital Radiology Director Sharon Whitaker. All ladies who attend will receive a free dinner, health education, and giveaways.

While breast cancer affects people throughout the year, October has been marked as breast cancer awareness month. It's used as a reminder to make sure women are keeping up with preventive and early detection measures. "The key to breast cancer detection is early detection," said Sharon Whitaker, Marcum & Wallace Hospital Director of Radiology. "It is so important for women to get annual mammograms and be proactive about their health." Please sign up for the free event by Friday, October 21 by calling 606-726-2106 (option 2).
