ETS Family Career Day at EKU

members attended morn- pasta bowls and books. Fol- a big success. ing interest sessions on lowing the morning interreer Guidance. Community treated to pizza and drinks. is one of the federal grant and Career Specialist, Man-Services were the program noon game. presenters.

Thank you to our pre- in Estill, Garrard, Jackson, activities (all free).

ETS participants and senters, Andrew Abernathy Lee, & Madison Counties. Eastern Kentucky Universithe opportunity to select zens Guaranty Bank, EKU thru 12th grade individuals ty (EKU) hosted the Annual items from the Christian Career Services, EKU Ath-ETS Family Career Day Appalachian Project - Op- letics Office, EKU Conferon Saturday, November 5, eration Sharing boxes that ences & Events Office, and 2016 at Eastern Kentucky included an assortment of the Christian Appalachian University in Richmond. chips, crackers, cereal, can- Project for helping to make shops, individual sessions ETS participants and family dy, protein bars, soft-drinks, the ETS Family Career Day on college preparation and Search (ETS) Program at family members were given and Mandy Harrison, Citi- ETS works with 6th grade who have the ability and interest to continue education beyond high school. Services include: guidance, workreadiness, career awareness, The Educational Tal- financial literacy, financial Financial Literacy and Ca- est sessions, everyone was ent Search (ETS) Program aid, assistance with college applications, scholarship re-Banker, Andrew Abernathy Free tickets to the EKU vs. TRIO Programs funded sources, personal developof Citizens Guaranty Bank Murray football game were through the U.S. Depart- ment skills, tutoring, menthen distributed to those ment of Education. The toring, academic advising, dy Harrison of EKU Career wishing to attend the after- EKU ETS Program is fund- college tours, cultural divered to serve 765 participants sity activities, and summer

ETS Scholar, Kenton Stepp of Estill County was the winner of the Citizens Guaranty Bank $25 Gift Card presented by Community Banker, Andrew Abernathy, also from Estill County.

ETS Scholars and family members from Estill, Garrard, Jackson and Lee Counties participated in "Financial Literacy" and "Careers" workshops, and offered many questions for the presenters.

Irvine Council discusses mobile homes ordinance

by CATHY DAWES The Estill County Tribune

The Irvine city council met on Monday night and among the discussions were the ordinance pertaining to mobile homes within city limits. City Attorney Rodney ordinance if a mobile home is moved off of a lot then it cannot year to work on.

standards with the fire marshal.

He also added that in certain circumstances those mobile homes would fall under the nuisance ordinance and would definitely be something that the city could do something about.

Davis said that the city could look at doing something about the mobile homes like they did with the property on High Street but it is a financial burden to the city. Davis said that under the current He recommended picking out ten properties and choose one each be replaced with another mobile Councilman Billy Arthur said he home. Councilwoman Nelle Wil- would like to see something done Davis replied that mobile homes and something needed to be done have to meet the required stan- about it. Davis said that if the city dards of the safety code and the had a building inspector then the building inspector could go in and give them a list of violations and 30 days to comply. He said he felt asked what the city planned to like the state fire marshal could get do about Christmas decorations involved in this particular matter.

building inspector position. He stated that he had studied at sevstarted his own business when he was 24 years old. Now that he is ners and said it was a good start. getting closer to retirement he still be involved in the industry. Noland told him that he would get him the information that he would the traffic flow wasn't as heavy. need to become a licensed inspector in the state of Kentucky.

Councilman Woody Tipton this year. Mayor Noland said that Phillip Waite expressed his he had spoken with Randy Pow- lege license for Linda Hamm to light poles in Irvine. The banners would cost around $70 each and eral different universities and had they would need 12. The council approved the purchase of the ban-

The council discussed using would like to slow down a bit but the aerial fire truck to hang those renceburg getting equipped with banners rather than renting a buck-Waite said he felt like his experiet truck like was done recently to as they did it in the evening when > Murphy reported that three local firemen, Chad Neal, Calvin Parker, and Shawn Riddell had spent three days in Bell County helping to battle forest fires.

The council approved a privimatter please contact city hall.

interest to the council about the ell about making banners for the open up a variety store at 88 River

Police Chief Brad Smith reported that the city will soon have a new police cruiser on the streets. He said the vehicle has been purchased and is currently in Lawthe necessary equipment.

Garbage pickup for the city of ence in the construction industry hang banners. Fire Chief Tony Irvine will be a bit delayed due to liams questioned mobile homes with the home on Main Street. He would be very useful when he Murphy said he had no problem the upcoming holidays. Anyone that were older and unoccupied. said he thought it looked horrible was doing an inspection. Mayor with hanging the banners as long that has their garbage picked up on Thursdays should expect to have it picked up on Friday November 25th. The city will observe Christmas on Monday December 26th, therefore, garbage will not be picked up until Tuesday. If you have any questions regarding this

EXCITE NIGHT

Estill County Basketball will be presenting Excite Night this coming Friday, November 18th, 6-9 p.m. at the ECHS gym.

There will be an alumni game, recognition of athletic teams and the band, and lots of contests and give-aways.

Toys for Tots Rules

Ravenna Police and Fire Department announce rules for Toys for Tots:

- 1. You must have legal guardianship of the children.
- 2. The children must live you at your residence.
- 3. You must show birth certificate for each child. 4. You must show a utility bill in your
- name with your current address. 5. Sign-ups will begin November 15th and
- will end on December 9th.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Ken White at the Ravenna Police Department between 4 p.m. and 9 p.m.

National Book Month activities aren't just for schools

Estill County Middle School "National Book Month" poster winner Mia Hale.

Visit Our Website At < Estill Tribune. Com > For Up-To-Date Obituaries

National Book Month the National Commission activities aren't just for on Reading noted in its reschools. When families read together, children get the positive message that a love of adventure and learning. Naturally, reading at home shouldn't be limited just to one month; the following activities can be introduced in November and then continued year-round.

 Make regular family visits to the local library to check out books, with parents and children each explaining why they picked particular books.

• Is your family known for its dramatic flair? Channel those theatrics in a posi- but fun reading activities tive direction and film a at school - and encouragscene or two from one of your favorite books. Another idea along these lines against that falling level of is to organize a school or engagement as children beneighborhood talent night during which these scenes are performed for others. • Play family games with a literary twist. Turn "20 Questions" into a book quiz or make up a story, with each family member

• For parents, read to your children every night. "The single most important activity for building eventual success in reading is reading aloud to children,' adding a segment in turn.

port Becoming a Nation of Despite noting gains in of books can mean a lifetime reading proficiency among American youngsters, the 2011 National Assessment of Educational Progress also highlighted a troubling trend. Among fourth-graders, 53% of girls and 39% of boys indicated that they read for fun almost every day. But those percentages declined steeply by eighthgrade, with 25% of girls and only 13% of boys indicating that they read for fun almost > Incorporating structured ing similar efforts at home - may provide a buffer come teens.

As the National Book Foundation notes, November is a great time to "Fall into a good book."

 In recognition of this month, the Estill County Middle School Youth Services Center sponsored a poster contest at ECMS. All students were encourage to participate in the contest. Pictured at left is ECMS the knowledge required for student and poster contest winner, Mia Hale.